FORDHAM LAW SCHOOL
AT LINCOLN CENTER

The Fordham University School of Law is located in Manhattan at the new Lincoln Center campus of the University. The building, which opened in 1961, was the first erected at the campus. In February, 1969, the newly constructed Leon Lowenstein Center, housing all of the other intown schools of the University, was opened.

The Law School building is located on West 62nd Street between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenues—one block west of Broadway. It is two blocks west of Central Park, three blocks northwest of Columbus Circle and is readily accessible from the 59th Street-Columbus Circle stations of the IRT-Broadway-7th Avenue and the Independent 6th and 8th Avenue subway lines. The IRT has a convenient local stop at 66th Street-Lincoln Center as well, and the area is served by a number of bus routes.

INFORMATION

The Admissions Office of the Law School, 140 West 62nd Street, is open during every business day of the year. Information regarding the requirements of the school for entrance, and for its degree and information regarding admission to the bar, may be obtained upon application.

ENDOWED CHAIRS

THE ALPIN J. CAMERON CHAIR OF LAW

The Alpin J. Cameron Chair of Law was founded by the late Alpin W. Cameron of Philadelphia to honor the memory of his father, a member of the Class of 1872, Fordham College. The Chair was instituted at the Law School on February 1, 1957. The first incumbent was Professor George W. Bacon. He was succeeded by the late Professor Thomas J. Snee. The present occupant of the Chair is Professor Leonard F. Manning.

THE AGNES AND IGNATIUS M. WILKINSON CHAIR OF LAW

The Agnes and Ignatius M. Wilkinson Chair of Law was created by the will of the late Dean Ignatius M. Wilkinson. The Chair was instituted on November 18, 1961 at the dedication of the Fordham University School of Law building at Lincoln Center. The first incumbent was former Dean and now Judge William Hughes Mulligan. The present occupant of the Chair is Professor John D. Calamari.

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

For more than a century and a quarter, Fordham University in New York City has offered instruction in the liberal arts and selected professional areas on both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Traditionally, Fordham has been committed to the education of talented young men and women in the liberal arts and sciences. Today, it has more than 10,000 students engaged in undergraduate, graduate and professional pursuit of excellence.

Fordham, founded under Catholic auspices, for most of its existence has benefited from the services of hundreds of members of the Society of Jesus, a religious order of men who have devoted much of their energies to higher education. The University does not receive financial support from the Church, nor does it require religious practices or studies of its students. It is governed by a self-perpetuating independent Board of Trustees serving under a charter granted by the New York State Board of Regents.

Although rich in tradition, Fordham is not fettered by its past. The wide diversity of its offerings attests to the institution's commitment to meet the changing educational requirements of a changing world. Located in one of the world's great cultural centers, the University offers its students virtually unlimited opportunities for research and for cultural activities.

In turn, the University serves the Greater New York community through its professional schools and special programs.

The School of Law was opened on Thursday, September 28, 1905. After more than 50 years on lower Broadway, the School was moved in 1961 to its present location, becoming the first unit of what is now the Fordham Campus at Lincoln Center, opposite the famed cultural center of the world, Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

In this setting of park and plaza, the air-conditioned Fordham Law School building blends with the architectural elegance of its surroundings while retaining its unique character as a school of law. In addition to classrooms, seminar rooms, administrative, Law Review and faculty offices, the Law School building houses a magnificent Moot Court.
room, commodious lounges for students, faculty and alumni, a large, informal reading room, and a library, complete with the most modern equipment, capable of handling in excess of 250,000 volumes.

Throughout its history, the School of Law has awarded the Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) degree to students successfully completing the course of studies. In 1968, at the recommendation of the faculty, and with the approval of the Board of Regents of the State of New York and the Board of Trustees of Fordham University, the degree was changed to Doctor of Law (J.D.).

OBJECTIVES

The School of Law is a community of scholars within the University, enjoying and perpetuating the heritage of Jesuit interest in the law and legal education. The faculty conceives its primary purpose to be the preparation of students for the practice of law and the stimulation of their interest in legal scholarship. This contemplates not simply the training of men and women qualified as legal technicians but, more importantly, their education as lawyers fully conscious of the grave responsibilities inherent in their profession.

The School of Law recognizes that it is preparing its students for service not only in the representation of clients but in the creation, interpretation and administration of the laws which govern the nation, state and municipality. The School of Law is cognizant, also, of its continuing obligation to be of service to its alumni and to the legal profession generally as the law continues its inevitable expansion and development.

SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION

The School offers a practical and scientific professional education in law. The curriculum includes a study of the principles of general jurisprudence, of the common and statute law of the United States, of the system of equity jurisprudence and, recognizing that a better understanding of the present can be acquired from a study of the past, of the historical and philosophical origins of law.

The course for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) covers three academic years in the day division and four academic years in the evening division.

The case system of study is primarily used, carefully selected collections of cases being employed as the basis of instruction. The teacher and the students discuss the assigned materials critically and comparatively, both with respect to the facts and decisions reached and the rules and principles of law involved. Thus the students are trained in legal analysis and accurate reasoning, while at the same time they are acquiring familiarity with the principles of law and their developments through the use of the actual decisions of the courts. The skills used by the lawyer in counselling clients, in drafting agreements, statutes and other legal documents, in trying cases, in arguing appeals and in legal research and legal writing are taught and practiced in class, in Moot Court competitions and on the Fordham Law Review and the Fordham Urban Law Journal to the fullest extent an academic atmosphere inspires and academic limitations allow.

The School recognizes that a grasp of the broad principles of common law is essential for the well-equipped lawyer and aims to train its students so that they may be qualified to practice law in any common law jurisdiction.

It is believed that the courses of the School are arranged to unite a sound training in the fundamental principles of the law with a training in the practical application of these principles to actual legal work.

ACCREDITATION

The Law School is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association. Fordham University is a member of the Council of Higher Education Institutions in New York City.
REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The School of Law is open to men and women. No discrimination is made on the ground of sex, race or religious belief. Applicants for degrees must be at least eighteen years of age upon entering the first year class and must be of good character.

Every applicant must be a graduate of a college or university approved by the University of the State of New York and must present a certificate that he holds an accredited degree conferred after satisfactory completion of a four-year college course, together with a full transcript of his scholastic record.

As a prerequisite for admission, an applicant must take the Law School Admission Test and register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). Information about this examination and the Law School Data Assembly Service may be obtained at the Admissions Office or by writing to Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 499, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

Where the applicant at the time of forwarding the transcript to LSDAS has not completed all of the college work on which he seeks admission, a transcript of record to the end of the last completed term may be furnished.

Applicants taking the test should request that their LSDAS forms be reported to the Fordham University School of Law.

No special preparation for the LSAT is necessary, as it is intended to measure intellectual capacity and aptitude rather than knowledge of particular subject-matter. The test should preferably be taken before formal application for admission to the School of Law.

Applicants for admission will be accepted on the basis of their presumptive fitness to pursue the study of law with success as disclosed by their college records, their scores on the Law School Admission Test, and the information as to character and fitness contained in the statement required to be filed by all applicants, as well as such other data as may be available or required.

Any applicant who has attended any other law school and who either has been required to withdraw therefrom or who is ineligible to continue without condition in regular course therein by reason of deficiency in scholarship, or otherwise, will not be admitted to this School.

Applicants whose degrees are not registered by the State Education Department of New York as acceptable to admit the holders thereof to law study, must obtain a Law Student Qualifying Certificate. Application for a Law Student Qualifying Certificate should be directed to the University of the State of New York, The State Education Department, Division of Professional Education, Albany, New York 12201. Those who meet the School’s requirements for admission should have no difficulty in procuring such certificate where necessary.

ADVANCED STANDING

An applicant who has satisfied all of the entrance requirements for regular first year students, and in addition has completed successfully one or more years of law study in a law school maintaining standards satisfactory to this School and duly registered by the University of the State of New York, and who is eligible to return to such law school in regular course, may be admitted to advanced standing. The amount of credit which will be given in such a case will depend upon the standards of the school and the quantitative and qualitative record of the student therein. Advanced standing will not be granted beyond the second year in the day course or the third year in the evening course.

STUDIES REQUIRED FOR DEGREE

The required course for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) in the day division of the School extends over three academic years, in all of which at least twelve periods of classroom instruction per week are required. Students entering this division are expected to devote substantially all of their working time to law study. The required course for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) in the evening division of the School extends over four academic years. The minimum number of classroom hours per week in the evening division is ten.

The work of the four years of the evening course equals that required in the three years of the day course. The class schedules in the evening course are so arranged that the student is usually not required to attend classes in excess of four evenings a week.

Every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) will be required to take all the courses prescribed in the curriculum in the first year. With the exception of a minimum number of required courses in second year day, and second and third year evening, (see Course of Studies), the course of studies is largely elective in those years, and fully elective in senior year.

The number of credits required for the degree is 81; each student is, however, required to take a program that is in conformity with the Rules of the School and the Rules of the Court of Appeals.

Under the Rules of the Court of Appeals no full-time day semester shall be less than 10 hours per week for the prescribed 96 calendar weeks of the day Course of Studies. No part-time evening semester shall be less than 8 hours per week for the prescribed 128 calendar weeks of the evening Course of Studies.

Under the Rules of the School, no student in the Day Division may take less than 12 hours per semester nor more than 15 hours. Additional credits earned in one academic year will not permit a student to take less than 12 hours per semester (Day) or 10 hours per semester (Evening) in any subsequent academic year, nor may credit earned at another law school be applied to reduce the minimum required course load.

Students are permitted to transfer from one division to the other upon formal application made to the Dean or his designate.

Students who contemplate a transfer from one Division to another (Day to Evening or vice-versa) are advised that under the Rules of the Court of Appeals eligibility to sit for the New York Bar Examination is governed, not by the conferral of the degree, but by the successful completion of the full-time or part-time program as defined in Rule 520.4 (d) and (e) of the Rules of the Court of Appeals. A student who completes two years in the Day Division cannot transfer to the Evening Division and graduate at the end of the third year, despite the number of credits amassed, because such student will not have the requisite number of weeks called for by the Rules, i.e., 128 weeks. Conversely, an Evening student transferring to the Day Division must remember that a part-time program is deemed equal to three-fourths (¾) of a full-time program and to graduate from a full-time program requires 96 calendar weeks. The Rules do not permit the acceleration of either a full-time or part-time program.

REGISTRATION

The School of Law admits students only in the fall semester.

Applicants for admission to the School may apply by mail or they may appear in person at the Admissions Office at the Law School at Lincoln Center to fill out the necessary statement and application on the School form and to file the required credentials.
The Director of Admissions will mail forms on request.

The Admissions Office will receive applications for the entering class during the period from October 1st through April 1st preceding the fall semester to which admission is sought. All applications must be accompanied by a $20 application fee. This fee is not refundable in any event and is not creditable against tuition or other charges.

As the School limits the number in every session, and as time is usually required to consider the application as well as to procure the necessary credentials and records, early application for admission is desirable.

No entering student will be permitted to register unless he or she has received the Bachelor's degree and has on file in the Admissions Office a final transcript under seal showing the degree conferred and the date. The transcript contained in the LSDAS report is not adequate for this purpose.

Students will not be registered under abbreviated or colloquial forms of recognized names. The registered name of the student will be entered on all certificates and degrees of the School, except in case of obvious error, or where the student shall have filed with the School a duly certified copy of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction permitting a change of name, and proof, satisfactory to the School, of compliance with the terms, if any, of such order.

Entering students must register personally during the scheduled registration period in September. All students already enrolled in the Law School must register personally prior to the start of the school year. The dates of such registration period are published in the Academic Calendar. All students must personally register for the spring semester at the times set by the Admissions Office and published in the Academic Calendar. No student who fails to appear as required above will be permitted to attend class without the special permission of the Dean. A late registration fee of $25 will be charged in those cases where the Dean has permitted a student to register after the stated time.

DISCIPLINE

The continuance upon the rolls and the graduation of each student, the awarding of academic credits, and the granting of any certificate or degree are strictly subject to the disciplinary powers of the University. The University reserves the right in its discretion at any time to cancel a student's registration, or to refuse to award academic credits, or to deny a certificate or a degree.

The disciplinary authority of the University is vested in the President of the University in such cases as he deems proper, and, subject to the reserved powers of the President, in the deans or other officers upon whom jurisdiction may be from time to time conferred.

HOURS OF INSTRUCTION

The classes in the day division are scheduled between the hours of 9:30 A.M. and 5 P.M. on every weekday except Saturday.

In the evening division classes will be held in the evening on every weekday except Saturday, commencing at 6 P.M. Certain elective courses open to day or evening students or both may be scheduled for Saturday morning.

The School reserves the right to change the hours of classes at any time at the discretion of the faculty.

Class schedules are published at the beginning of each term.

ATTENDANCE REGULATIONS

Under the rules governing admission to the Bar in the State of New York, the law school must certify that bar applicants were in good and regular attendance and took and successfully completed the prescribed course of instruction required at the school for the law degree.

Further, it is clear that work in the law school cannot be satisfactorily carried on by students who are irregular in attendance.

A student is subject to dismissal whenever his attendance becomes so irregular that the Faculty deems it to constitute a bar to certification of the required "good and regular attendance," or considers it unwise to permit the student to continue. Special conditions may be imposed in other cases which the Faculty regards as serious.
EXAMINATIONS AND GRADES

Written examinations are held at the end of every term in all subjects completed therein and as essential parts thereof. Mid-year or mid-term examinations may be scheduled in courses at the discretion of the professor. Classroom work, so far as practical, is also a determinant of general standing.

Examinations for all classes will begin promptly at the hour announced in the examination schedule posted prior to the examination period in each semester.

Students must present themselves for examination at the examination held immediately upon completion of every subject unless excused by the Dean or his designate. Omission to do so will constitute a failure of such examination by the student.

The standing of students will be indicated by numerical grades. A grade of 60 or better constitutes a passing mark in a subject. To continue in good scholastic standing, however, a student must maintain a weighted average grade of at least 70 in every scholastic year. Any student who fails to do so will not be permitted to continue in the School or to be a candidate for degree.

In case a student is permitted to defer an examination, he must take the next examination given in the subject. In the meantime, if on the examinations taken by him his weighted average is at least 70, he may be allowed to continue conditionally in the School, subject to his maintaining at least said weighted average grade when the deferred examination is taken. If on the examinations taken by him his weighted average is less than 70, he will be excluded from the School unless and until on taking the deferred examination his weighted average is brought up to at least 70.

Failed or omitted examinations aggregating in the credit value more than one quarter of the required work of any year, will constitute a failed year irrespective of the weighted average grade obtained by the student. In such case the student will not be permitted to take any re-examination in the failed subjects or to continue in the School or to be a candidate for degree.

In the case of failed or omitted examinations, if the credit value constitutes no more than one quarter of the year's required work, the examinations may be retaken at the next regularly scheduled examination period, except in the case of subjects in the final year of the course. Because of a University policy to award degrees only on the first or second Saturday in June, the first day of September and the first day of February, the conditioned examinations for senior students will be held during the second week of August so that the degree can be conferred in September. If the examination is again failed or omitted, the student will be required to repeat the subject.

Any student who fails to pass or does not take the first examination offered in a course required to be repeated as aforesaid will not be allowed to take any further examination therein, or to continue in the School or to be a candidate for degree.

Where the content of a course, in which a student has failed or deferred to take the examination, has changed subsequent to said examination, the student will be required to prepare himself on the altered content of the course. Should the course be omitted so that no examination is thereafter given, the student may be required to take an additional course and to pass an examination therein in lieu of the omitted course.

No day student will be permitted to enter the third year class with any failed first year course outstanding against him; no evening student will be permitted to enter the fourth year class with any failed first or second year course outstanding against him.

No student who fails to attain the required year average of 70.00% will be permitted to advance conditionally into the next year. Such a student may, however, seek permission to redo the work of the failed year by filing a Petition for Permission to Repeat with the Dean or his designate and by appearing personally before the Re-Admissions Committee at its stated sittings—usually in late July.
HONORS

A student who attains a weighted average of 85 or better for the academic year is honored by being placed on the Dean’s List for that year. A student who completes all requirements for the degree with a cumulative weighted average of 87 will receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) cum laude; one who has a cumulative weighted average of 92 will receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) magna cum laude; and one who has a cumulative weighted average of 95 or higher will receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) summa cum laude.

The Honors of the Graduating Class are awarded to the student in each of the three sections who attains the highest cumulative average for the three or four years of the course.

PRIZES

The Frances Thaddeus Wolff Memorial Prize. Henry J. Wolff, in memory of his wife, Frances Thaddeus Wolff, a graduate of the school, has donated $300 for three awards of $100 each to that member of each section of the senior class who has attained the highest weighted average in his studies in the senior year.

Senior Prizes. In the graduating class the student attaining the second highest weighted average in his studies throughout the year will be awarded a prize of fifty dollars ($50.00).

School Prizes. In all first year classes, second year classes and in the third year evening class, the student attaining the highest weighted average in his studies throughout the year will be awarded a prize of fifty dollars ($50.00).

The Chapin Prize. A prize consisting of the income from the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), established by the will of Mrs. Mary Knox Chapin, widow of Professor H. Gerald Chapin, who for many years and until his death was a member of the faculty of the School, is awarded annually to that graduate of the School who has attained the highest weighted average in his studies throughout the full course in the School.

Class of 1911 Prize. The Class of 1911, on the occasion of its Silver Jubilee, established a prize consisting of the yearly income from the sum of $1,500, to be awarded annually for the best essay submitted by a student in the senior class of the Law School on a legal subject to be designated annually by the Dean. In the event that in any year no essay submitted is deemed worthy of the award, the income from the fund for that year is devoted to the purchase of books for the law library.

Fordham Law Alumni Association Medals in Constitutional Law. Three gold medals, the gift of the Fordham Law Alumni Association, are awarded to those members of the graduating class who excel in Constitutional Law in their particular sections.

The Cornelius W. Wickersham, Jr. Award. The Federal Bar Council confers the Cornelius W. Wickersham, Jr. Award on the student most proficient in Constitutional Law. It honors the memory of the late Mr. Wickersham, who was a prominent member of the New York Bar, served as United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York, and was a distinguished past president of the Federal Bar Council. The award consists of an outstanding work in the field of Constitutional Law.

George W. Bacon Award. A plaque and certificates are awarded annually by the National Legal Fraternity of Gamma Eta Gamma to those students who are adjudged by the Moot Court Faculty Adviser to have excelled in Moot Court competition, both trial and appellate.

Prizes of the West Publishing Company. These prizes are as follows: 1) Each year the West Publishing Company awards one selected title of Corpus Juris Secundum to a student in each year who, in the opinion of the Faculty Committee on Prizes, has made the most significant contribution toward over-all legal scholarship.
2) Each year the West Publishing Company awards a selected title from the Horn-book Series to the student in each year who achieves the highest scholastic average in his year.

The United States Law Week Award. A year's subscription to the United States Law Week is awarded by the Bureau of National Affairs, Inc., of Washington, D.C., to the graduating student who is adjudged by a committee of the faculty to have made the most satisfactory scholastic progress in his final year.

"American Jurisprudence" Prizes. The joint publishers of "American Jurisprudence," Bancroft-Whitney of San Francisco, California, and The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company of Rochester, New York, have presented to the school separately bound encyclopedia articles on selected subjects. These are awarded to the highest ranking student in the selected courses, and the selection of the winners is determined by the professors teaching the respective courses.

Williams Press Official Reports Award. To the member of the graduating class, who resides in and intends to practice in New York State and who maintains the highest standing in Contracts, Remedies, Evidence, Real Property and Torts: a complete set of the New York Reports, 2nd Series, together with one year's subscription to the Official Reports including the Advance Sheets and Session Law pamphlets.
Donated by Williams Press, Inc.

The Guild of Catholic Lawyers, Inc. Prize. A $100 government bond, awarded to the student who attains the highest grade in Jurisprudence.

I. Maurice Wormser Award. A plaque and certificates are awarded annually by the Student Bar Association of Fordham Law School to those four students who are adjudged to have excelled in Appellate Moot Court competition presided over by members of the judiciary and of the Bar.

Guaranteed Title Company Award. A prize of $100 and a Certificate of Award is awarded annually, by the Guaranteed Title Company of New York City to the student who writes the best article based upon legal research in the field of Real Property. The subjects are to be approved and the winner selected by a faculty committee, composed of professors teaching the courses in Real Property.

New York Consolidated Law Service Prize. The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company annually awards a set of the New York Consolidated Law Service to the student in the graduating class who, in the opinion of the Faculty, has exhibited consistent excellence in preparation and scholarship. In addition the New York Code of Criminal Procedure is awarded to the student receiving the highest grade in N. Y. Criminal Procedure.

Commercial Law Prize. The Law Students Award Committee of Regional Members Association of the Commercial Law League of America for the Second District has established a prize to be conferred annually on the student who achieves the highest grades in the courses in Commercial Transactions and Commercial Financing. The prize consists of the following three volumes: Secured Transaction Under the Uniform Commercial Code, by Peter F. Coogan, William F. Hogan, and Detlev F. Vagts (2 vol.) and Sales and Bulk Transfers Under the Uniform Commercial Code by Richard W. Duesenberg and Lawrence B. King (1 vol.).

ADMISSION TO THE BAR

Some states, for example, Alabama, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, and Texas, require that persons undertaking the study of law with a view toward practicing in those states register as candidates for the bar when they begin their study or prior to such study. Each applicant for admission to the School is advised to investigate the requirements of the state in which he or she intends to practice. The Director of Admissions will furnish on request the address of the particular state agency to which inquiry should be made. Timely fulfillment of these requirements for practice in the aforementioned states is essential and each student should complete his registration before classes begin. New York State does not require registration prior to the commencement of law school.

Graduates of the School who are citizens of the United States over twenty-one years of age and are actual residents of New York State, or who intend to become residents before the date of the examination, and intend in good faith to maintain such actual residence for at least six months prior to applying for admission to the Bar of this State, are eligible to take the New York State Bar Examination.

Under the Rules of the Court of Appeals of New York, effective September 1, 1972, candidates passing the bar examination are eligible for admission to practice upon satisfying the requirements of the Committee on Character and Fitness in the judicial department having jurisdiction of the candidate’s application for admission.

LAW LIBRARY

The capacity and promise of a law school are, in great part, measured by its library. The School’s library—in architecture, in decor, in functionalism—is the product of years of research, designing, testing, and redesigning to determine how best to serve legal scholarship within the law school and among its alumni. Its east wall of glass overlooks a large landscaped green; the main reading room is designed to provide spaciousness and comfort and to encourage research and study.

A balconied reading area surrounds two sides of the main reading room. On the north side of the main floor is a microfilm room and, interspersed among the stacks, are carrels for individual study. The book stacks extending through five levels are easily accessible. An auxiliary and more informal reading room, occupying more than 5,000 square feet, is located on the lower level of the library wing.

The library contains more than 140,000 volumes, including an extensive collection of American, English and Canadian materials, international law and foreign law as well as the complete National Reporter System, the official state reports of all states, the statutes of all the several states, citators and state and regional digests. A large and ever expanding collection of textbooks, treatises, legal periodicals and standard encyclopedias is also maintained by the library.

The library is open daily during the school year to students of the School of Law and its alumni, from 9 A.M. to 11 P.M., except on Saturdays when it is open from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. and on Sundays when the hours are from 1 P.M. to 9 P.M.

BOOKS AND BOOK STORE

The University Shop maintains a branch on the ground level of the new Leon Lowenstein Center. The shop is open during the regular business day. It carries the required casebooks and related items. It is estimated that the cost of new casebooks is about $150 each year in the day division and $120 in the evening division. Used casebooks may, of course, be used.

CAFETERIA

A cafeteria is located on the ground floor of the building. It has a serving and table capacity to accommodate 120 people. In addition to the cafeteria in the School of Law, there is a spacious dining room located on the Plaza level of the Lowenstein Center.
THE LAW REVIEW

The Fordham Law Review is published four times during the school year, in October, December, March and May by a board of student editors chosen on the basis of their scholarship and writing ability. The Review contains articles on a broad range of legal subjects written by members of the bar, by law school professors and by others expert in a particular area of the law, as well as notes on recent decisions and comments on legal topics prepared by the board of student editors. The publication of the Review and its use in various courses are considered part of the general educational program of the School. Law Review membership is the highest academic honor the School can confer and Law Review experience is considered ideal training for the practice of law.

The Law Review offices, on the second floor of the classroom wing, overlook the main reading room of the library. A private library and conference room is maintained by the Law Review on the same floor.

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

The Student Bar Association is the representative organization of the Law School student body and is a member of the Law Student Division—American Bar Association. The SBA President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer and the elected representatives of each class section constitute the governing body of the Association.

The SBA is the major channel of communication between the students and the School of Law faculty and the University administration. The SBA promotes student positions and alternatives via participation on the investigatory and governing committees in the School of Law. The SBA also manages all co- and extra-curricular activities within the Law School.

Among these activities are four Moot Court programs open to the entire student body and the Law Forum, a series of guest lectures by persons of prominence in the law and public affairs. The Association also underwrites the operation of the school newspaper, THE ADVOCATE, and performs such service functions as staffing a used book exchange, publishing a student directory, holding a blood drive, offering low cost health insurance to students, and sponsoring several social events during the year.

MOOT COURT PROGRAM

The faculty considers participation in moot court activities to be one of the more important aspects of the student’s training. Participation in the program is required for first year students, but there are several programs for upperclassmen which are voluntary and provide excellent opportunities for the development of appellate and trial advocacy skills.

FRESHMAN MOOT COURT: In the spring semester of first year an appellate moot court competition is conducted with upperclassmen as judges and teams of first year students arguing moot questions of law on appeal from trial records. This co-curricular program is required for all students in first year.

THE I. MAURICE WORMSER COMPETITION: In the fall semester of the academic year second-year day and third-year evening students are eligible to participate in an appellate moot court competition directed toward selection of the School of Law’s national moot court team for the following year. Judges in the early rounds include members of the faculty and distinguished alumni of the School of Law and in the later rounds, Federal and State Judges.

THE WILLIAM HUGHES MULLIGAN MOOT COURT PROGRAM: During the summer months an appellate moot court competition is held and, though directed toward the needs of evening students, it draws competitors from all classes and even from other law schools. The program provides an excellent opportunity to develop advocacy skills in mixed competition.

TRIAL MOOT COURT: Trial moot courts are held during the fall semester in order to provide seniors in the School of Law with an opportunity to experience trial advocacy before State and Federal Judges. Teams of lawyers for prosecution and defense contest criminal cases and carry their inquiry from indictment to verdict with underclassmen acting as defendants, witnesses, and jurors.

MOOT COURT TEAM: From the top students in the Wormser Competition and by selection of a faculty committee a team of three students is chosen annually to represent Fordham in the Sutherland Cup Competition and in the National Moot Court Competition.

THE JESSUP COMPETITION: A team of students represents the Fordham International Law Society in the annual International Law Moot Court Competition sponsored by the American Society of International Law.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Two national legal fraternities, Gamma Eta Gamma and Phi Alpha Delta, maintain active chapters at Fordham. Both strive to establish an enduring camaraderie among men and women with similar professional goals by programs emphasizing the social and cultural aspects of the lawyer’s life. A branch of the national legal sorority, Kappa Beta Pi, was established at the Law School to provide a special forum for the growing number of women studying law.

FORDHAM INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY

The purpose of the Society is the promotion of understanding and interest in the concepts and legal principles of the existing world order. The chief means to this end is a program of luncheon meetings and social hours at which there is an opportunity for discussion of current problems with teachers, diplomats, practitioners and administrators from government service and the United Nations. The Society also prepares a moot court team to participate in the annual Jessup International Moot Court Competition.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COUNCIL

The Environmental Law Council of Fordham Law School is designed to give law students an opportunity to develop their legal skills while participating in the efforts to preserve and restore our natural environment. Since its founding in 1969, members of the Council have been engaged in legal research for the Natural Resources Defense Council, a New York-based environmental law firm involved in anti-pollution litigation throughout the country. The Council has also advised the Citizens For A Quieter City on the application of traditional anti-pollution theories to the field of noise pollution.

In addition to legal research, members of the Council have expanded their knowledge of environmental law by attending the pollution litigation conferences sponsored by the Practising Law Institute and participating in the symposiums sponsored by other environmental organizations.

THE URBAN LAW JOURNAL

The Urban Law Journal is published twice during the school year by a board of student editors and a staff selected on the basis of a writing sample competition which is held during the spring semester. Its purpose is to provide students with an opportunity to further develop their skills in the areas of creative legal thinking, legal research and legal writing.

Each member of the staff is encouraged to submit an article on some area of Urban Law which is of current interest. Each issue also contains an article by a distinguished member of the legal or public interest community.

The office of the Law Journal is located on the third floor of the Law School.

CLINICAL LEGAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Consistent with the principles of sound legal education and in conformity with the Rules of the New York Court of Appeals, the School of Law instituted four experimental programs in academic year 1971-1972. Of these only the Legal Aid Program will be offered in academic year 1972-1973.

The program will contain an academic component, viz. weekly lectures at the law school conducted jointly by a Legal Aid lawyer and a regular Faculty member on the various topics in the office. Students will be carefully selected, assigned to particular Legal Aid lawyers, and required to keep regular office hours, four hours per day, two days each week. In addition, the participating students will be required to keep a diary and the regular Faculty member in charge of the program will maintain liaison with the Legal Aid lawyers, and observe and work with the students in the law office setting.

Students participating in the program will receive two credits, on a pass-fail basis. The program runs a full year, but academic credit may be earned only in one semester.

For students entering the School a deposit of $100.00 is required to be paid upon notice of acceptance. This will be applied upon the applicant’s registration toward tuition fees and will not be refunded for any reason should he fail to enter the School. One half of the tuition for each year is due from all students at the opening of each term of the scholastic year.

All charges for tuition and fees are subject to change without notice at the discretion of the Trustees of the University.

No degree is granted or certificate of attendance issued to any student who has not paid all fees due from him to the School.

No student who is in default more than two weeks in the payment of any fee will be permitted to attend lectures or to take any examination during the continuance of such default.

No fee paid or any portion thereof is returnable as a matter of right upon the withdrawal of a student from the School. Where illness, physical disability, or other extraordinary circumstance requires a student to leave, he may file with the School a written statement of the causes of such withdrawal. Thereupon, provided such statement be filed promptly and within the then current scholastic year, the School will take under consideration the equities of the case. In no event, however, will any deposit paid on acceptance of application for registration be returned or credited, nor will any refund of a fee be made for a fraction of any quarter of the School year during any portion of which the student was in attendance.

Veterans entering the School under P.L. 16, or P.L. 550 must obtain Certificates of Eligibility from the Veterans Administration.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS

Although the Law School does not maintain dormitory facilities, the University maintains a Housing Office to assist students in locating off campus housing. The office can be reached by writing to Housing Office, Fordham University, Bronx, New York 10048.

In addition a limited number of apartments will be available to Law students in a new building completed early in 1972.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND STUDENT AID

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS. The University makes available each year to entering students a number of scholarships and partial scholarships awarded, upon application, by the Dean of the Law School and the Faculty Committee on Law School Scholarships. Further scholarship assistance is also available, in the discretion of the Dean, to students of high scholastic promise who require financial help. Applicants desiring to apply for Financial Aid should do so through the Law School Financial Aid Service (LSFAS). Forms for this purpose may be obtained from the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 944, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. All applications for financial aid must be submitted by March 1.

LAW REVIEW SCHOLARSHIPS. The University grants ten full-tuition scholarships to those seniors who are elected to the Board of Editors of the Fordham Law Review.

UNIVERSITY GRANTS-IN-AID. After a student has completed freshman year, he may apply for financial assistance in meeting his expenses for the ensuing years of his education. To be eligible, the student must be in good academic standing and demonstrate his financial need. The grant is renewable annually.

ARTHUR M. LAUFER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP. The Arthur M. Laufer Memorial Foundation, Inc. provides scholarship aid in memory of Fordham alumnus Arthur M. Laufer. The foundation was funded from donations in large part from members of the New York State Food Merchants Association, Inc., of which Mr. Laufer was counsel. Recipients are selected on the basis of need and academic achievement by the trustees of the donor in consultation with members of the Law School faculty. Preference will be given to students who have worked in or who have an identity with the food industry.

LAW ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIPS. The Fordham Law Alumni Association, through its Scholarship Committee, makes available a number of scholarships on a yearly basis. These scholarships are awarded, upon application, by the Dean and the Scholarship Committee of the Law School to students of high scholastic promise.

MORGAN O'BRIEN PRESTON SCHOLARSHIP. A full-tuition scholarship has been made available through the generosity of Mrs. Stuart D. Preston in honor of her deceased son, Morgan O'Brien Preston. The scholarship is awarded by the Dean and the Faculty Committee on Law School Scholarships.

THE "ED SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIP" OF THE LOYAL LEAGUE PHILANTHROPIES, INC., OF NEW YORK CITY. A scholarship award is made by the Loyal League to an entering student who is a male graduate of a public school in the Greater New York Metropolitan Area, and who satisfies the tests of financial needs and academic accomplishment.
The John G. Hagan Scholarship Fund. This fund was established by Mr. James Hagan to aid students in financial need applying for admission to the Law School.

The Frederick and Clara Helbig Scholarship Fund. These scholarships are awarded, upon application, by the Dean and the Scholarship Committee of the Law School to students of high scholastic promise who require financial assistance.

The Louis Stein Fund. A special loan fund has been made available for the use of students in financial need by Louis Stein, Class of 1926. This fund is administered at the discretion of the Dean.

McCarthy & McGrath Book Fund. Mr. Herman J. McCarthy and Mr. Charles F. McGrath, members of the law firm of McCarthy & McGrath, have established a small revolving fund to be used in the discretion of the faculty for the purchase of books by students who are temporarily unable to acquire them. It is expected that users of the fund will replenish it, without interest, to the extent of the amount borrowed, when financially able to do so. Students interested should advise the Dean.

State Loan Program. A number of states sponsor loan programs for students who are legal residents of the state. Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, and Virginia are included among the states making these loans available. Loan forms are usually obtainable at the local branches of the various savings and commercial banks.

Residents of New York State are eligible to participate in the loan program of the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation. Applications for these loans and a list of the participating lending institutions may be obtained by writing to the Corporation, 111 Washington Avenue, Albany, New York, 12224.

Tuition Plan Incorporated. Through an agreement with the University, a Fordham student may make use of the program of Tuition Plan Inc. A leaflet describing the terms of the available contracts and an application may be obtained by writing prior to June 15th to: The Office of the Bursar, Fordham University, Bronx, New York 10458.

The American Bar Association Fund for Legal Education. The American Bar Association has established a Law Student Loan Program to help qualified students obtain a legal education. It has been designed to supplement the scholarship and loan programs of the approved law schools by adding additional lending capacity through which students may obtain loans in order to meet law school expenses. Interested students are directed to write to the Director of Admissions for further information and loan forms.

Scholar Incentive Awards have been established by the State of New York for residents of the State who are pursuing a full-time program of study. To qualify as a resident, a student must have been a resident for a period of at least twelve months immediately preceding the beginning of the semester for which he applies.

New applicants for admission must file a formal application, which may be obtained from the University of the State of New York, State Education Department, Albany, New York 12224.

To qualify for S.I.A. during the first semester of law school, a candidate must have: 1) achieved a weighted grade point average of at least 2.5 in the undergraduate study completed prior to the year in which application is made or graduate study is begun. (In computing this weighted grade point average, the following points are assigned the letter grades: A-$4; B-$3; C-$2; D-$1; E or F-$0) or, 2) attained a rank in the upper half of his total college class (cumulative), or, 3) attained a combined score of 950 in the verbal and quantitative parts of the aptitude tests of the Graduate Record Exam or, 4) attained a score at the 50th percentile or higher in the Law School Admissions Test, and must be registered in the day division.

Phi Alpha Delta Scholarship. Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity makes fifteen five-hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarships available nationally each year. Students who have completed two years of day or three years of evening law school and who are members of the fraternity may be eligible for such scholarship. Applications and detailed information may be obtained from the Faculty Advisor or the Chapter Justice.
PLACEMENT

The Placement Office, under the direction of a full-time professional placement officer, is located in Room 128 on the main floor of the Law School. The office is open during every business day of the year. The phone numbers are (212) 956-5646 and 956-6647.

The primary functions of the office are to assist graduating students who are securing permanent positions and second year students who are seeking summer associate positions. The office arranges interviews at the School chiefly during the months of October, November, and December and to a lesser degree throughout the year. The Director of Placement also provides career counseling and advises all candidates for judicial clerkships.

The services of the Placement Office are also available to students in both divisions, who seek full or part-time positions during the school year. To that end, the Office maintains a listing of all positions by category. The office now occupies quarters, adjacent to the Student Lounge, in which is located its Placement Bulletin Board.

The services of the Placement Office are also available to all Alumni of the Law School.

COURSE OF STUDIES

The course of studies in the School of Law has recently been revised. The program in both first year day and evening is required. In second year day and second and third year evening there is a minimum number of required courses and a vastly expanded number of elective offerings. Senior year in each division is totally elective.

Following the course of studies is the list of electives presently offered, by semesters, indicating the division in which offered, the number of hours, and the requirements, if any. An alphabetical description of courses is printed below.

The minimum number of credits required for graduation is 81. After first year, in both divisions, each student must elect a program that, in the Day Division is not less than 12 hours nor more than 15 per semester, and in the Evening Division is not less than 10 hours nor more than 12 per semester. Additional credits earned in one academic year will not permit a student to take a reduced program in any subsequent academic year.

As required by the Rules of the New York Court of Appeals, “all study must be evaluated by authentic written examinations except where such examination is inappropriate as in seminar and moot court courses or those courses which are principally concerned with legal writing, research or drafting.” (Rule 520.4 (c) (3) ).

Students may elect only one paper course per semester (see course description below).

FOURTH YEAR
All Elective

ELECTIVE COURSES

The following courses are presently being offered as electives in the School of Law. New elective courses may be added at the discretion of the faculty as a result of the continuing study by a Faculty Committee.

From the electives listed below or announced at the start of each semester, each student must select a sufficient number of elective hours to meet the hour requirements of each semester as indicated in the Course of Studies published above.

* Beginning in academic year 1973-74, Corporations and Partnerships will be 5 hours: 3 hours in the first semester and 2 hours in the second semester.
Indicated with each elective is the semester and division in which it is offered, the number of hours, and the requirements, if any, for admission thereto. Evening students may, if they can so arrange their schedules, take any elective which is offered solely in the day division.

6 Requires basic course in Corporations.
7 Requires basic course in Antitrust.
8 Requires basic course in Labor Law.
9 Requires course in Estate and Gift Taxation.
10 Mortgages will be open to 2nd and 3rd year students, day and evening.
11 Seminar.
12 YC Year course.
DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

Accounting for Lawyers

A study of business accounting, with particular emphasis on the preparation and analysis of financial statements and such problems as revenues and costs, tangible and intangible assets, depreciation and amortization, inventory valuation, and surplus and reserves. In addition, discussion is directed to various phases of legal problems and the making of legal and financial decisions with respect to them. The course will be restricted to a limited number of students and is designed for law students having little or no previous knowledge of bookkeeping and accounting.

Administrative Law

This course is split into two major divisions, quasi-legislative and quasi-judicial administrative functions. In the former are included studies as to the validity of the organic statute and administrative regulations. In the latter the materials provoke discussion of the fairness of pre-trial procedure, the requisites of notice and hearing, conduct of the hearing, methods of obtaining judicial review and the scope thereof.

Admiralty and International Maritime Law

Application of tort and contract principles to the maritime field with a consideration of traditional maritime subjects: maritime liens, collision, salvage, cargo damage, charter parties, general average, limitation of liability and ship mortgages. Briefer coverage is given to admiralty jurisdiction and procedure, federal regulation of shipping, international maritime conventions and choice of law problems.

Advanced Antitrust

This course supplements the basic antitrust course. The following areas will be included: Robinson-Patman; industrial property; regulated industries; FTC Act; administration, remedies and enforcement of federal antitrust laws; extraterritoriality of United States antitrust laws; and selected state antitrust legislation. The basic antitrust course is a prerequisite. (Offered in alternate years in the Second Semester.)

Advanced Conveyancing Problems (Real Estate Transactions)

Seminar will be devoted to the development of an understanding of modern, sophisticated real estate financing and conveyancing techniques covering such areas as leasehold mortgages and estates, sale leasebacks, air rights, joint ventures, syndications, cooperatives, condominiums, REIT’s and “wrap around” mortgage financing. There will be occasional guest discussion leaders. Students will be required to write a paper. Enrollment is limited. Requires course in Real Property Mortgages.

Advanced Corporate Problems—Seminar

Offered in cooperation with the firm of Seward & Kissel of the New York Bar. Seminar limited to 12 students. Prerequisites are successful completion of Corporations and Income Taxation I. Admission only with approval of Instructor; limited to senior students; paper required.

Advanced Criminal Justice—Seminar

This is a seminar which explores some of the more difficult and controversial subjects of criminal law and procedure, with emphasis upon those having social implications. It attempts in depth analysis of such areas as sentencing systems, plea bargaining, bail, the insanity defense, and the like. Requires a paper.
Antitrust Law

Examination of the basic Federal antitrust laws, primarily the Sherman Act, Clayton Act and Federal Trade Commission Act. Specific topics covered will be monopolization; price fixing; trade association operations; resale price maintenance; refusals to deal; exclusive distributorships; territorial and customer limitations; tying and exclusive dealing arrangements; joint ventures; and horizontal, vertical and conglomerate mergers.

Aviation Law

This seminar considers problems in the sources and organization of the law of international and domestic air transport; routes and rates; choice of law and forum; hijacking; exculpatory clauses; carrier liability for personal injury, death and cargo damage; governmental liabilities; types of liabilities and limitations thereof; ground damage and other offensive aircraft operations, including air pollution and sonic boom.

Bankruptcy

This course deals with the collection, liquidation, and distribution of a debtor's estate in a federal bankruptcy proceeding. Topics covered include bankruptcy administration, Acts of Bankruptcy, discharge, assets of the bankrupt estate, avoidance of property transfers antedating the bankruptcy, and claims against the bankrupt estate.

Civil Advocacy

This course deals with the techniques and strategies employed in the litigation process. Typical trial problems are considered with particular emphasis upon the methods of developing facts in the courts. Each student electing this course must have taken or be taking courses in Evidence and Procedure. Emphasis is placed upon the ethical problems facing the trial lawyer. The course is designed to afford individual experience in all phases of pre-trial and trial practice. Enrollment is limited to permit personal supervision. Senior students only.

Civil Procedure

A comprehensive study and critical evaluation of the principles applicable to the litigation of civil matters, with particular emphasis upon the federal rules of civil procedure and a comparison of those rules with those in force in other jurisdictions. The course considers topics such as the nature of complaints, answers, counterclaims, discovery procedures, extraordinary writs, interpleader, joinder, res judicata, jurisdiction, trials and appeals.

Civil Rights I and II

An advanced course in the constitutional, statutory and executive protection of individuals against discrimination in personal security, voting, education, the administration of justice, employment, housing and public accommodations. The first semester concentrates on the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments and Reconstruction Period statutes. The second semester concentrates on federal civil rights legislation and executive action since 1960. Students may take one or both semesters. Final exams at the end of each semester.

Close Corporations—Seminar

Intensive study of the problem of close corporations. Students will be required to draft the appropriate papers (certificate of incorporation, shareholder agreement, etc.) for a close corporation. Seminar limited to 14 senior students. Completion of the course in Corporations and permission of the instructor are prerequisites for enrollment.

Collective Bargaining

A study of the negotiations, administration, and renegotiation of the collective agreement. This course is designed to afford students a basic understanding of major legal principles underlying the collective bargaining relationship in their application to collective bargaining negotiations, grievance handling, arbitration, practices of labor and management, and the techniques for the resolution of impasses in negotiation. Requires course in Basic Labor Law.

Commercial Financing

This course deals with the use and operation of the major credit devices employed in modern commercial financing. The course involves an intensive study of installment selling, discounting trade paper, inventory and receivables financing and the use of documents as security. The rights and liabilities of the parties, unsecured creditors, the trustee in bankruptcy, and other third parties are considered. A detailed and complete study of the structure and operation of Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

Commercial Paper

The uses and operation of negotiable instruments in commercial transactions, the resulting bank deposits and their collection. The course involves an intensive and detailed study of Articles 1, 3 and 4 of the Uniform Commercial Code and its effect on commercial and banking practices.

Commercial Transactions

The rights and obligations of parties engaged in the marketing and distribution of merchandise. The formation and interpretation of the sales contract, its performance, the risk of loss, and the rights and remedies of the parties are intensively considered. This course also develops the law of products liability, documentary transfers, bulk sales, and letters of credit. The course is designed to develop Articles 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7 of the Uniform Commercial Code, with its principal emphasis on Articles 2 and 7.

Comparative Law

A general course designed to familiarize the student with the technique of using foreign materials and with legal institutions of other countries. The course is primarily based upon the methods and structures of those contemporary legal systems (European and Latin American) whose sources stem from the Roman Law.

Conflict of Laws

A study of the principles applicable when courts of one jurisdiction enforce rights created or acquired in another jurisdiction. An analysis of general concepts involved in the choice of law such as domicile, characterization, renvoi, substance, procedure and jurisdiction. Also includes choice of law rules in the field of torts, contracts, workmen's compensation, property, trusts, decedents' estates, business organizations and domestic relations as well as the specific rules applicable in the federal courts.

†Connecticut Practice and Procedure

A study of Connecticut State Court practice and procedure from the inception of an action to judgment and appeal. Full year course.

Constitutional Law—Seminar

This seminar concentrates on Supreme Court Practice, the constitutional decisions of the most recent term and leading constitutional issues on the current docket. Membership is limited. Completion of the basic Constitutional Law course is a prerequisite. Seminar presentation and paper required; no exam.

Constitutional Law

A study of the United States Constitution, stressing the theory and practice of judicial interpretation and review; the separation of federal powers; the relation of the states to the federal government; specific governmental powers, in particular the tax, † Offered in alternate years, will next be offered in September, 1974.

treaty, war and commercial powers; the various limitations imposed on the exercise of governmental power, stressing in particular the due process and equal protection clauses and the bill of rights.

Consumer Credit

This seminar investigates the laws that regulate the flow of credit to the consumer from the early usury statutes to present legislation local, state and Federal. It also considers contemporary reform movements in the credit field. The course deals in detail with such matters as installment selling, the small loan, credit cards, rates and charges, disclosures, credit advertising, credit rating, collection practices and remedies in the credit field.

Contracts

A study of the fundamental principles governing the formation of simple contracts and statutory modifications of the common law; their operation; the rights and liabilities of third parties; discharge of contracts by virtue of impossibility of performance; the Statute of Frauds, the parol evidence rule, and other defenses. The provisions of the Commercial Code relating to contracts are also considered.

Corporate Finance—Seminar

Capital structure and corporate indebtedness, dividend policy and related corporate problems. Requires basic course in Corporations and Partnerships.

Corporate Taxation

A study of the income taxation of corporations including their organization, distributions, reorganizations and liquidations. Requires basic course in Taxation and is limited to senior students.

Corporations and Partnerships

A survey of the law of agency, partnerships, and other forms of unincorporated business associations. The course includes agent's and partner's authority and rights between principal and agent. The private business corporation and its relationship to the state, shareholders and third parties is also studied. Topics considered include the corporate entity concept, the organization of corporations, their powers, the rights and duties of promoters, officers and directors; shareholders' derivative actions. Pertinent federal securities regulatory legislation and rules are examined.

Criminal Advocacy

This course deals with the techniques and strategies employed in a criminal prosecution. Typical trial problems are considered with particular emphasis upon the methods of developing facts in the courts. Each student electing this course must have taken or be taking courses in Evidence and Procedure. Emphasis is placed upon the ethical problems facing the trial lawyer. The course is designed to afford individual experience in all phases of pre-trial and trial practice. Enrollment is limited to permit personal supervision. Senior students only.

Criminal Justice

The course begins with an overview of the crime problem and the criminal justice system. Theories of criminality and sentencing are discussed with special attention paid to status offenders, indigents and family, sex and juvenile offenders. The course proceeds to an examination of the substantive law of crimes including the sources of the law, accessory conduct, the elements of major crimes, anticipatorial offenses and the defenses to criminal responsibility.
Current Problems in Litigation—Seminar

The course will focus upon present-day problems the practicing lawyer encounters in pleading, pretrial discovery, and motion practice, as well as at trial. Emphasis will be upon litigation in the federal courts, but attention will be given also to the circumstances warranting a preference for a state rather than a federal forum in particular instances. Consideration will be given to complex and multi-party litigation and the extent to which procedural rules applicable in other contexts are appropriate to such suits. Students will be expected to participate in the preparation of a variety of litigation papers used at the trial court level.

Decedents’ Estates

Intestate succession, adopted children, persons civilly dead; the nature of a will; testamentary capacity, fraud, duress, and undue influence; probate proceedings, right of election, contracts to make testamentary dispositions; constructive trusts, conditional wills; construction and interpretation of wills, execution, revocation, republication and revival.

Domestic Relations

The contract to marry, the marriage contract and the legal relation created by such contracts. The methods of legally terminating marriage, including annulment, divorce, dissolution and separation. The requisites for recognition of matrimonial decrees obtained in foreign jurisdictions are considered. Selected problems concerning legitimacy, support, alimony and separation agreements.

Estate and Gift Taxation

An introduction to the Federal estate and gift taxes with an analysis of the tax costs associated with inter vivos gifts as well as testamentary transfers. Requires basic course in Income Taxation I.

Estate Planning

A comparative study of methods of effecting the client’s purposes in respect of the conservation and transmission of his estate while minimizing the impact of income, gift and estate taxes. Integration of life insurance, inter vivos gifts, revocable and irrevocable inter vivos trusts; the short term trust; disposition of business interests; testamentary trusts, powers and marital deduction; multiple and sprinkling trusts; charitable gifts and the charitable foundation. The course in Estate and Gift Taxation and Income Taxation I prerequisites. Limited to senior students.

Evidence

A study of the rules governing the admissibility of evidence including problems of relevancy, remoteness and undue prejudice; the hearsay rule and its exceptions; the offer of evidence and objection; examination of witnesses; competency and privilege of witnesses; expert opinion evidence; judicial notice, burden of proof and presumptions.

Federal Courts

A study of particular problems that arise in connection with the jurisdiction and law-making powers of the federal courts: case or controversy requirements; congressional controls over federal courts; appellate review powers; diversity, ancillary and pendent jurisdiction; federal question jurisdiction; and selected choice of law problems.

Income Taxation I

A study of the income taxation of individuals, estates, trusts and partnerships covering such items as gross income, permissible exemptions and deductions, accounting problems and capital gains and losses.

33
Income Taxation of Estates, Trusts and Partnerships

This course will cover the Federal income tax treatment of decedents’ estates; income in respect of a decedent; various types of trusts including accumulation trusts, charitable trusts, and grantor trusts; and the income tax problems encountered in operating in partnership form. Limited to senior students. Requires course in Income Taxation I.

Insurance

Insurance distinguished from similar transactions; insurable interest in life and fire insurance. Standard fire insurance policy provisions and major provisions of life policies. Coverage; amount of recovery; representations; warranties concealment; waiver and estoppel. Interests of others than the insured; standard mortgagee clause; subrogation.

International Antitrust

This course will concentrate on problems in the areas of international antitrust and patents. The extra-territorial effect of American antitrust laws and European and Japanese antitrust laws will be emphasized. The basic course in Antitrust Law is a prerequisite. (Offered in alternate years in the Second Semester.)

International Business Transactions

The course examines legal problems in the traditional forms of international trade involving one party in the United States and other parties abroad as well as the legal and practical problems which arise when American business enterprise moves outside the United States. Among the subjects considered will be letters of credit, tariffs, export controls, forms of doing business abroad, regulation of aliens, expropriation and nationalization, sovereign immunity and enforcement of foreign judgments. Requires basic course in Corporation and Partnerships. Paper required.

International Law

A study of the law governing the relations of independent nations and other entities endowed with international personality. It comprises: the nature and sources of international law; recognition of states and governments; legal personality of international organizations; rights and obligations of the individual; bases and scope of state jurisdiction, including maritime jurisdiction; sovereign and diplomatic immunities; law of treaties; state responsibility; and settlement of international disputes.

Jurisprudence

Survey of the more important schools of legal philosophy, particularly in the light of contemporary problems. Areas to be covered, among others, are natural law theories, transcendental idealism, utilitarianism, European and American sociological and realist schools, positivism, contemporary analytical jurisprudence. Theories of justice and problems relating to law and morality will also be examined. Requires a paper.

Labor Law, Basic

The rights and duties of employers, employees and labor unions under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, with respect to concerted activities of employees for their mutual protection; the collective bargaining process and related processes.

Land Financing

Commercial transactions in real property: the role of the broker; sales contracts; recording acts; Torrens registration; title insurance; curative devices; remedies for contract breach. Major attention to financing the transaction, particularly to such devices as the conventional and government-insured mortgage, installment sale, stock-cooperative, condominium, long-term lease, and sale-lease-back. Requires course in Real Property Mortgages.
Land Use

Analysis of the legal and administrative aspects of the regulation of land use and development, and the problems and techniques of urban planning, at the various levels of government. Particular attention will be given to zoning, subdivision controls, public acquisition of land, tax controls, housing and urban renewal and model cities.

Law and the Environment—Seminar

Investigation into the causes of deterioration of man's physical environment and into legal means to arrest such deterioration. Areas covered include inland water pollution; nuclear pollution; pollution by pesticides; destruction of estuaries and of the marine environment; oil pollution; solid waste disposal; air pollution; noise pollution; loss of recreational, scenic and wildlife areas.

The seminar is limited to 25 students, each of whom is required to write a paper on a selected topic in one of the major areas of concern and to present the outline of his paper for discussion in class.

Law and Medicine

This seminar will deal with the preparation and presentation of medical proof in civil and criminal cases. Study will also be given to the legal, medical, social and moral issues involved in the areas of Drug Abuse; Right to Treatment; Human Experimentation; Organ Transplants; Allocation of Scarce Resources; Criminal Insanity; Civil Commitment; Euthanasia; and Abortion. Limited to third year day students and fourth year evening students. Paper required.

Legal Writing

Training in systematic legal research, in analysis of legal problems and in the development of legal writing skills. Assignments will include preparation of a legal memorandum and an appellate brief.

Legislation

The course explores the organization and procedure of legislative bodies. Methods and techniques of legislative research and legislative drafting are considered, as are problems of legislative interpretation.

N.L.R.B. Procedures

A basic and comprehensive study of the practice and procedure before the National Labor Relations Board. Beginning with the filing of the petition in a representation proceeding and the charge in an unfair labor practice matter, the course treats various phases of the problems presented to a lawyer who deals with Labor Board matters. Requires basic course in Labor Law.

New Jersey Practice and Procedure

A study of the present civil practice in the New Jersey courts from the inception of an action to the enforcement of the judgment and appeal. The course objective is to learn the Supreme Court rules covering New Jersey practice and procedure and the statutes dealing with the administration of justice. Year course.

New York Civil Practice and Procedure

New York Criminal Procedure

This course, dealing with the criminal procedure of New York State, necessarily involves treatment and analysis of New York’s recently enacted “Criminal Procedure Law,” which drastically revised the entire area formerly covered by the now defunct “Code of Criminal Procedure.” Describing the conduct of a criminal case in this state, the course stresses the major changes worked by the new Code and the reasons and considerations which prompted them.

Patent, Trademark and Copyright Law

A survey of the federal and state laws governing rights in artistic, technological and commercial properties; the law of copyright, patent, trademark; common law copyright, trade secrets, and unfair competition.

Products Liability

Examines the emerging field of products liability law with emphasis on negligence, warranty, fraud and strict liability in tort. Consideration is given to problems of proof and evidence especially in the area of drugs, automobiles and industrial machinery.

Professional Responsibility

Organization of the Bar; discipline; duty to courts, clients, public and fellow lawyers, fiduciary duty; advocacy and the adversary system, fees, solicitation; morality at the Bar.

Property

A study of the origin and nature of property interests in chattels, including possession, finding, gifts, bailments, liens, pledges, fixtures, accession and confusion. The course presents an introduction to the law of real property, including estates and incidents of ownership; adverse possession; concurrent ownership, natural rights, easements and profits; and basic conveyancing.

Proxy Regulations

Discussion of selected provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 with primary attention to the following sections of the 1934 Act: Section 10 (manipulative and deceptive devices); Section 13 (periodical and other reports); Section 14 (proxies); and Section 16 (inside trading). Requires basic course in Corporations and Partnerships. Paper required.

Public Employment Law

This course deals with statutory and executive labor relations systems, for federal, state, and local government employees. Subjects covered include unit determinations, choice of representatives, improper practices, negotiations, resolution of impasses and the relationship of civil service laws to labor relations. Requires basic course in Labor Law.

Public School Law

The course will examine issues in the financing, control and operation of elementary and secondary schools—community control, federal involvement in education, control of conduct in the schools, powers of the board of education and the state, hiring and firing of teachers, collective bargaining, students’ rights.

Real Property Mortgages

The rights and liabilities of the mortgagor and mortgagee inter se and in relation to third parties. Real property legal and equitable mortgages are discussed in detail. The topics considered include priorities, recording acts, discharge, redemption, assignments, mortgages to secure future advances, and foreclosure.
Remedies

Introduction to the forms of legal and equitable remedies, principles governing their scope and availability, and consideration of grounds for choosing between alternative remedies. Includes general principles of damages, specific performance, injunctions, rescission, reformation and restitutional remedies.

Roman Law

The course will study the ancient Roman Law of persons, property, obligations, succession and procedure. Primary consideration will be given to the influence of Roman Law on the Common Law.

Securities Regulation

Emphasis is on the Securities Act of 1933, civil liabilities, the registration procedure, pre-registration publicity, the private offering exemption, problems of controlling persons, the brokers exemption, Regulation A. Surveys the reporting requirements of the 1934 Act and the blue sky laws. Requires basic course in Corporations and Partnerships.

Sentencing and Corrections

A study of conflicting theories of penology and the role of the judge in deciding upon a sentence which is appropriate for the criminal and for the needs of society. Seminar course.

Suretyship

This course covers the Statute of Frauds pertaining to the surety, the surety's rights before and after payment, the defenses available to the surety, his right to counterclaim, and the effect of discharge or alteration of the principal obligation. The rights and obligations of co-sureties and sub-sureties are also considered.

Tax Exempt Organizations—Seminar

An advanced seminar in the federal income tax treatment of public charities and private foundations. The topics include constitutional and policy considerations; permissible structures and purposes of exempt organizations; the distinction between public charities and private foundations; unrelated businesses and debt-financed income; prohibited transactions; deductibility of contributions to exempt organizations; reporting and auditing; proposals for tax reform. Limited to senior students and requires course in Income Taxation I.

Tax Shelters and Fringe Benefits—Seminar

Examination of the advantages and problems encountered in utilizing the so-called tax shelter devices and programs: oil and gas; rehabilitation of low-income rental housing; cattle; stock options; qualified and nonqualified deferred compensation. Limited to senior students, and requires course in Income Taxation I.

Torts

A study of the causes of action arising from breaches of legally recognized duties relating to the protection of person, reputation and property including the traditional tort actions and new and developing areas of tort liability. Various defenses, immunities and privileges are discussed. The course includes a critical analysis of the fault concept of liability.

Trusts and Future Interests

A study of the nature, creation, and termination of trusts; future interests, including powers of appointment and the rule against perpetuities; and the administration of trusts and decedents' estates.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

INSTRUCTIONS

(a) All questions on this application must be answered in the applicant’s handwriting. Omissions or inaccuracies may result in the applicant’s being rejected or dismissed from the School. A copy of this application will be submitted to the Committee on Character and Fitness in connection with your admission to the Bar.

(b) Send the completed application form to the Director of Admissions, Fordham University School of Law with a $20.00 check payable to Fordham University in payment of the non-refundable application fee.

(c) All applications for admission must be submitted no earlier than October 1st nor later than April 15th preceding the Fall Semester to which admission is sought.

(d) Each applicant is required to take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) and to register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). Registration forms for both are contained in the LSAT Bulletin of Information and should be returned directly to LSAT/LSDAS, Box 944, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. Each applicant should arrange for the LSDAS to receive transcripts of the work completed at each college, Graduate or Professional school attended. Do not send these copies to the Law School. Once an applicant has been accepted to the Law School, he must then arrange for the Law School to receive his final transcript under seal showing degree conferred and date.

(e) Each applicant shall submit with this application a written statement of about 250 words describing the applicant’s purpose in studying law and mentioning any matters deemed pertinent to the applicant’s ability to pursue successfully the study of law.
