FORDHAM LAW SCHOOL
AT LINCOLN CENTER

The Fordham University School of Law is located in Manhattan at Lincoln Center. The building, which opened in 1961, was the first erected at the Lincoln Center campus. In February, 1969, the Leon Lowenstein Center, housing all of the other Lincoln Center schools of the University, was opened.

The Law School building is located on West 62nd Street between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenues—one block west of Broadway. It is two blocks west of Central Park, three blocks northwest of Columbus Circle and is readily accessible from the 59th Street-Columbus Circle stations of the IRT-Broadway-7th Avenue and the Independent 6th and 8th Avenue subway lines. The IRT has a convenient local stop at 66th Street-Lincoln Center as well, and the area is served by a number of bus routes.

INFORMATION

The Admissions Office of the Law School, 140 West 62nd Street, is open during every business day of the year. Information regarding the requirements of the school for entrance and for its degree, and information regarding admission to the bar, may be obtained upon written request to:

Endowed Chairs

THE ALPIN J.
CAMERON CHAIR
OF LAW

The Alpin J. Cameron Chair of Law was founded by the late Alpin W. Cameron of Philadelphia to honor the memory of his father, a member of the Class of 1872, Fordham College. The Chair was instituted at the Law School on February 1, 1957. The first incumbent was Professor George W. Bacon. He was succeeded by the late Professor Thomas J. Snee. The present occupant of the Chair is Professor Leonard F. Manning.

THE AGNES AND IGNATIUS M.
WILKINSON
CHAIR OF LAW

The Agnes and Ignatius M. Wilkinson Chair of Law was created by the will of the late Dean Ignatius M. Wilkinson. The Chair was instituted on November 18, 1961 at the dedication of the Fordham University School of Law building at Lincoln Center. The first incumbent was former Dean and now Judge William Hughes Mulligan. The present occupant of the Chair is Professor John D. Calamari.
For more than one hundred and twenty-five years, Fordham University has offered instruction in the liberal arts and selected professional areas on both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Traditionally, Fordham has been committed to the education of young men and women in the liberal arts and sciences. Today, it has more than 14,000 students engaged in undergraduate, graduate and professional pursuit of excellence.

Although rich in tradition, Fordham is not fettered by its past. The wide diversity of its offerings attests to the institution’s commitment to meet the educational requirements of a changing world. Located in one of the world’s great cultural centers, the University offers its students virtually unlimited opportunities for research and cultural activities.

The main campus of Fordham University is located at Rose Hill, in the Bronx. The campus occupies an 80-acre site and houses Fordham College, the College of Business Administration, the School of General Studies, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and the Graduate Institute of Religious Education.

The Lincoln Center Campus houses, in addition to the School of Law, the Liberal Arts College, the Graduate School of Business Administration, the School of Education, and the Graduate School of Social Service.

As an urban university, Fordham has a special relationship with the New York metropolis. The concept of community service is best expressed through the professional Schools of Law, Business Administration, Education, and Social Service, which have made a significant contribution to New York’s public life.

The University is governed by a self-perpetuating, independent Board of Trustees under a charter granted by the New York State Board of Regents. Fordham was founded under Catholic auspices and for most of its existence has benefited from the services of hundreds of members of the Society of Jesus, a religious order of men who have devoted much of their energies to higher education.

Fordham is not a sectarian or church-related institution; it is not controlled by nor does it receive financial support from a church body. The University applies no religious test for its faculty, students, or administrators nor does it require religious practices or the acceptance of any religious tenets or doctrines. Opportunities for religious services and counseling are available on a voluntary basis.

The University is a member of the American Council on Education, the Association of American Colleges, the National Catholic Educational Association, the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities, the Association of Urban Universities, the Council of Higher Educational Institutions in New York City, and the Association of Universities and Colleges of the State of New York.

It is an accredited member of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is on the list of registered Colleges and the Universities of the Board of Regents of the State of New York.

The University is a cooperating institution of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, a contributing institution to the American Academy in Rome, and a member of the corporation of the American School of Oriental Research, Jerusalem and Baghdad.

The University has a chapter of the Society of the Sigma Xi, a national honorary scientific research organization, established to recognize and foster the scientific spirit in American colleges, and to provide both stimulus and acknowledgment for independent scientific research.

The University has a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honor society for liberal arts colleges.

Fordham University has had for many years a policy of non-discrimination. Recognizing its legal obligation as well, it has developed a policy for the guidance of all supervisory personnel, academic and non-academic, relating to all students and employees and to the community served by the University. By its admissions and hiring practices, no applicant is denied admission, appointment or promotion because of color, race, religion, sex, or national origin. Fordham has developed an affirmative action program providing for additional efforts to recruit, employ, and promote women and members of minority groups. In its role as a member of the New York community, Fordham University does not knowingly support or patronize any organization which discriminates on the basis of color, race, religion, sex, or national origin. This includes a ban on the purchase of goods or the use of facilities of such discriminative organizations.
THE SCHOOL OF LAW

The School of Law was opened on September 28, 1905. After more than 50 years on lower Broadway, the School was moved in 1961 to its present location, becoming the first unit of what is now the Fordham Campus at Lincoln Center, facing Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

The air-conditioned Fordham Law School building blends with the architectural elegance of its surroundings while retaining its unique character as a school of law. In addition to classrooms, seminar rooms, administrative, Law Review, Urban Law Journal, Student Bar Association, and faculty offices, the Law School building houses a magnificent Moot Court room, commodious lounges for students, faculty and alumni, two large reading rooms, and a library, complete with the most modern equipment, capable of handling in excess of 250,000 volumes.

Throughout its history, the School of Law has awarded the Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) degree to students successfully completing the course of studies. In 1968, at the recommendation of the faculty, and with the approval of the Board of Regents of the State of New York and the Board of Trustees of Fordham University, the degree was changed to Doctor of Law (J.D.).

ACCREDITATION

The Law School is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association. The degree is recognized in every state of the United States and graduates of the School of Law are eligible to sit for the bar examinations of every state—provided the residency and filing requirements for admission to the bar are met. See Admission to the Bar, infra at p. 57.

OBJECTIVES AND PROGRAMS OF STUDY

The School of Law is a community of scholars within the University. The faculty conceives its primary purpose to be the preparation of students for the practice of law and the stimulation of their interest in legal scholarship. This contemplates not simply the training of men and women qualified as legal technicians but, more importantly, their education as lawyers fully conscious of the grave responsibilities inherent in their profession.
The School of Law recognizes that it is preparing its students for service not only in the representation of clients but in the creation, interpretation and administration of the laws which govern the nation, state and municipality. The School of Law is cognizant, also, of its continuing obligation to be of service to its alumni and to the legal profession generally as the law continues its inevitable expansion and development.

The School offers a practical, and professional education in law. The curriculum includes a study of the principles of general jurisprudence, of the common and statute law of the United States, of the system of equity jurisprudence and, recognizing that a better understanding of the present can be acquired from a study of the past, of the historical and philosophical origins of law.

The course for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) covers three academic years in the day division and four academic years in the evening division. Required and elective courses and course descriptions are set forth on pages 36 to 51.

The case system of study is primarily used, employing selected collections of cases as the basis of instruction. The teacher and the students discuss the assigned materials critically and comparatively, both with respect to the facts and decisions reached and the rules and principles of law involved. Thus, the students are trained in legal analysis and accurate reasoning, while at the same time they are acquiring familiarity with the principles of law and their developments through the use of the actual decisions of the courts. The skills used by the lawyer in counselling clients, in drafting agreements, statutes and other legal documents, in trying cases, in arguing appeals and in legal research and legal writing are taught and practiced in class, in moot court competitions and on the Fordham Law Review and the Fordham Urban Law Journal to the fullest extent an academic atmosphere inspires and academic limitations allow. To develop practical professional skills, clinical programs, as set forth on page 17, may be undertaken as electives in both day and evening divisions after the first year.

The School recognizes that a grasp of the broad principles of common law is essential for the well-equipped lawyer and aims to train its students so that they may be qualified to practice law in any common law jurisdiction.
CLINICAL LEGAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Consistent with the principles of sound legal education and in conformity with the Rules of the New York Court of Appeals, the School of Law has instituted the following clinical programs as part of the regular Course of Studies:

The programs contain an academic component, viz. weekly lectures at the Law School on the various topics or cases. Students are carefully selected, assigned to particular lawyers, and required to keep regular office hours. In addition, participating students must keep a diary and the faculty member in charge of each program maintains liaison with the attorneys involved.

Students participating in a clinical program receive two credits on a pass-fail basis.

Students may elect two Clinicals per year, one each semester, subject to a limitation of three such programs during the course of studies at the Law School.

All clinical programs are under the direct supervision and control of a regular member of the faculty charged with Clinical Legal Education.

LAW LIBRARY

The capacity and promise of a law school are, in great part, measured by its library. The School's library—in architecture, in decor, in functionalism—is the product of years of research, designing, testing, and redesigning to determine how best to serve legal scholarship within the law school and among its alumni. Its east wall of glass overlooks a large green landscape; the main reading room is designed to provide spaciousness and comfort and to encourage research and study.

A balconied reading area surrounds two sides of the main reading room. On the north side of the main floor is a microfilm room and, interspersed among the stacks, are carrels for individual study. The book stacks extending through five levels are easily accessible. An auxiliary and more informal reading room, occupying more than 5,000 square feet, is located on the lower level of the library wing.

The library contains more than 175,000 volumes, including an extensive collection of American, English and Canadian materials, international law and foreign law as well as the complete National Reporter System, the official state reports of all states, the statutes of all the states, citators and state and regional digests. A large and ever expanding collection of textbooks, treatises, legal periodicals and standard encyclopedias is also maintained by the library.

The library is open daily during the school year to students of the School of Law and its alumni, from 9 A.M. to 11 P.M., except on Saturdays when it is open from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. and on Sundays when the hours are from 1 P.M. to 9 P.M.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The School of Law is open to men and women. No discrimination is made on the ground of sex, race, age, or religious belief. Applicants for degrees must be at least eighteen years of age upon entering the first year class and must be of good character.

Every applicant must be a graduate of a college or university approved by the University of the State of New York and must present a certificate that he holds an accredited degree conferred after satisfactory completion of a four-year college course, together with a full transcript of his scholastic record.

As a prerequisite for admission, an applicant must take the Law School Admission Test and register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). Information about this examination and the Law School Data Assembly Service may be obtained at the Admissions Office or by writing to Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 944, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

The School recommends that all applicants arrange to take no test later than the February administration of the LSAT.

If at the time of forwarding the transcript to LSDAS, the applicant has not completed all of the college work on which he seeks admission, a transcript of his record to the end of the last completed term may be furnished.

Applicants taking the test should request that their LSDAS forms be reported to the Fordham University School of Law.

No special preparation for the LSAT is necessary, as it is intended to measure intellectual capacity and aptitude rather than knowledge of particular subject-matter. Preferably, the test should be taken before formal application for admission to the School of Law.
Applicants for admission will be accepted on the basis of their presumptive fitness to pursue the study of law with success as disclosed by their college records, their scores on the Law School Admission Test, and the information as to character and fitness contained in the statement required to be filed by all applicants, as well as such other data as may be available or required.

Any applicant who has attended another law school but who has been required to withdraw therefrom or who is ineligible to continue without condition in the regular course therein because of deficiency in scholarship, or otherwise, will not be admitted to this School.

Applicants whose degrees are not registered by the State Education Department of New York as acceptable to admit the holders thereof to the study of law must obtain a Law Student Qualifying Certificate. Application for a Law Student Qualifying Certificate should be directed to the University of the State of New York, The State Education Department, Division of Professional Education, Albany, New York 12201.

ADVANCED STANDING

An applicant who has satisfied all of the entrance requirements for regular first year students, and in addition has completed successfully one or more years of law study in a law school maintaining standards satisfactory to this School and duly registered by the University of the State of New York, and who is eligible to return to such law school in regular course, may be admitted to advanced standing. The amount of credit which will be given in such a case will depend upon the standards of the other school and the quantitative and qualitative record of the student therein. Advanced standing will not be granted beyond the second year in the day division or the third year in the evening division.

REGISTRATION—ENTERING STUDENTS

The School of Law admits students only for the fall semester.

Applicants for admission to the School may apply by mail or they may appear in person at the Admissions Office at the Law School at Lincoln Center to fill out the necessary statement and application on the School form and to file the required credentials. The Director of Admissions will mail forms on request.

The Admissions Office will receive applications for the entering class during the period from September 1st through March 1st preceding the fall semester to which admission is sought. All applications must be accompanied by a $20 application fee. This fee is not refundable and is not credited toward tuition or other charges.

As the School limits the number in each division, and as time is usually required to consider the application as well as to procure the necessary credentials and records, early application for admission is desirable.

No entering student will be permitted to register unless he has received the Bachelor’s degree and has on file in the Admissions Office a final transcript under seal showing the degree conferred and the date. The transcript contained in the LSDAS report is not adequate for this purpose.

Students will not be registered under abbreviated or colloquial forms of recognized names. The registered name of the student will be entered on all certificates and degrees of the School, except in case of obvious error, or where the student shall have filed with the School a duly certified copy of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction permitting a change of name, and proof, satisfactory to the School, of compliance with the terms of the order.

Entering students must register personally during the scheduled registration period.

REGISTRATION—ENROLLED STUDENTS

All students already enrolled in the Law School must register personally prior to the start of the school year. The dates of the registration period are published in the Academic Calendar. All students must personally register for the spring semester at the time set by the Dean’s Office and published in the Academic Calendar. No student who fails to appear at the required time will be permitted to attend class without the special permission of the Dean and the payment of a late registration fee of $25.

It is estimated that the cost of new casebooks is $150.00 in the day division; and $120.00 in the evening. Used casebooks are acceptable.

For students entering the School a deposit of $100.00 is required to be paid upon notice of acceptance. This will be applied upon the applicant’s registration toward tuition fees and will not be refunded for any reason should he fail to enter the School. One half of the tuition for each year is due from all students at the opening of each term of the scholastic year.

All charges for tuition and fees are subject to change without notice at the discretion of the Trustees of the University.

No degree is granted or certificate of attendance issued to any student who has not paid all fees owed to the School.

No student who is in default more than two weeks in the payment of any fee will be permitted to attend lectures or to take any examination during the continuance of such default.

No fee paid or any portion thereof is returnable as a matter of right upon the withdrawal of a student from the School. Where illness, physical disability, or other extraordinary circumstances require a student to withdraw, he may file with the School a written statement of the causes of such withdrawal. Thereupon, provided the statement... be filed promptly and within the then current scholastic year, the School will take under consideration the equities of the case. In no event, however, will the application fee or the deposit paid on acceptance of application for registration be returned or credited, nor will a refund of a fee be made for any period of time during which the student was in attendance.

Upon notification from the Assistant Dean's Office, the Bursar will make refunds to students who withdrew from the Law School. Refunds will be made for tuition after deducting 15% of the total semester charge for each week of attendance. No refunds are granted after the sixth week.

Veterans entering the School under P.L. 16, or P.L. 550 must obtain Certificates of Eligibility from the Veterans Administration.

University Scholarships. The University makes available each year to entering students a number of scholarships and partial scholarships awarded, upon application, by the Dean of the Law School and the Faculty Committee on Law School Scholarships. Further scholarship assistance is also available, in the discretion of the Dean, to students of high academic promise who require financial help. Applicants desiring to apply for financial aid should do so through the Graduate and Professional School Financial Aid Service (GAPSFAS). Forms for this purpose may be obtained from the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 944, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. All applications for financial aid must be submitted by March 1.

Law Review Scholarships. The University grants ten full-tuition scholarships to those seniors who are elected to the Board of Editors of the Fordham Law Review.

University Grants-in-Aid. After a student has completed the first year, he may apply for financial assistance in meeting his expenses for the ensuing years of his education. To be eligible, the student must be in good academic standing and demonstrate his financial need. The grant is renewable annually.

Arthur M. Laufer Memorial Scholarship. The Arthur M. Laufer Memorial Foundation, Inc. provides scholarship aid in memory of Fordham alumnus Arthur M. Laufer. The foundation was funded from donations in large part from members of the New York State Food Merchants Association, Inc., of which Mr. Laufer was counsel. Recipients are selected on the basis of need and academic achievement by the trustees of the donor in consultation with members of the Law School Scholarship Committee faculty. Preference will be given to students who have worked in or who have an identity with the food industry.

Law Alumni Scholarships. The Fordham Law Alumni Association, through its Scholarship Committee, makes available a number of scholarships on a yearly basis. Upon application, these scholarships are awarded by the Dean and the Scholarship Committee of the Law School to students of high scholastic promise.

The “Ed Sullivan Scholarship” of The Loyal League Philanthropies, Inc., of New York City. A scholarships award is made by the Loyal League to an entering student who is a graduate of a public school in the Greater New York Metropolitan Area, and who satisfies the tests of financial needs and academic accomplishment.

The John G. Hagan Scholarship Fund. This fund was established by Mr. James Hagan to aid students in financial need applying for admission to the Law School.

The Frederick and Clara Helbig Scholarship Fund. These scholarships are awarded by the Dean and the Scholarship Committee of the Law School to students of high scholastic promise who require financial assistance.

The Joseph B. Lynch Memorial Scholarship. The directors of the Joseph B. Lynch Foundation have established a scholarship fund in memory of Joseph B. Lynch, an alumnus of the Law School. The scholarships are to be awarded by the Dean and the Scholarship Committee to students who exhibit academic promise and who need financial assistance.

The Cahill Gordon & Reindel Scholarship. A full tuition scholarship has been made available through the generosity of the law firm of Cahill Gordon & Reindel. The scholarship is awarded by the Dean and the Committee on Law School Scholarships to a minority group student who exhibits academic promise and who needs financial assistance.

The Louis Stein Fund. A special loan fund has been made available for the use of students in financial need by Louis Stein, Class of 1926. This fund is administered at the discretion of the Dean.

The Judge David Lee, Sr. Scholarship. The Stella Matutina Foundation has made available a tuition grant of $2,600 to an entering student of Hispanic origin. The grant will be based on financial need and scholastic promise and will be continued during the student's second and third years so long as he maintains satisfactory academic status.

McCarthy & McGrath Book Fund. Mr. Herman J. McCarthy and Mr. Charles F. McGrath, members of the law firm of McCarthy & McGrath, have established a small revolving fund to be used in the discretion of the faculty for the purchase of books by students who are temporarily unable to acquire them. It is expected that users of the fund will replenish it, without interest, to the extent of the amount borrowed, when financially able to do so. Students interested should advise the Dean.

State Loan Program. A number of states sponsor loan programs for students who are legal residents of the state. Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, and Virginia are included among the states making these loans available. Loan forms are usually obtainable at the local branches of the various savings and commercial banks.

Residents of New York State are eligible to participate in the loan program of the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation. Applications for these loans and a list of the participating lending institutions may be obtained by writing to the corporation, 111 Washington Avenue, Albany, New York, 12224.

Tuition Plan Incorporated. Through an agreement with the University, a Fordham student may make use of the program of Tuition Plan Inc. A leaflet describing the terms of the available contracts and an application may be obtained by writing prior to June 15th to: The Office of the Bursar, Fordham University, Bronx, New York 10458.

The American Bar Association Fund for Legal Education. The American Bar Association has established a Law Student Loan Program to help qualified students obtain a legal education. It has been designed to supplement the scholarship and loan programs of the approved law schools by adding additional lending capacity through which students may obtain loans in order to meet law school expenses. Interested students are directed to write to the Director of Admissions for further information and loan forms.

Scholar Incentive Awards have been established by the State of New York for residents of the State who are pursuing a full-time program of study. To qualify as a resident, a student must have been a resident for a period of at least twelve months immediately preceding the beginning of the semester for which he applies.

New applicants for admission must file a formal application, which may be obtained from the University of the State of New York, State Education Department, Albany, New York 12224.

To qualify for S.I.A. during the first semester of law school, a candidate must be registered for a minimum of twelve credits, and, in addition, must have either: (1) achieved a weighted grade point average of at least 2.5 in the undergraduate study completed prior to the year in which application is made or graduate study is begun (in computing this weighted grade point average, the following points are assigned the letter grades: A-4; B-3; C-2; D-1; E or F-0), or, (2) attained a rank in the upper half of his total college class (cumulative), or, (3) attained a combined score of 950 in the verbal and quantitative parts of the aptitude tests of the Graduate Record Exam or, (4) attained a score at the 50th percentile or higher in the Law School Admissions Test.

Phi Alpha Delta Scholarship. Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity makes fifteen, five-hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarships available nationally each year. Students who have completed two years of day or three years of evening law school and who are members of the fraternity may be eligible for such scholarship. Applications and detailed information may be obtained from the Faculty Advisor or the Chapter Justice.
COURSES REQUIRED FOR DEGREE

The required course for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) in the day division of the School extends over three academic years, in each of which at least twelve periods of classroom instruction per week are required. Students entering this division are expected to devote substantially all of their working time to law study. The required course for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) in the evening division of the School extends over four academic years. The minimum number of classroom hours per week in the evening division is ten.

The work of the four years of the evening course equals that required in the three years of the day course. The class schedules in the evening course are so arranged that the student is usually not required to attend classes more than four evenings a week.

Every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) will be required to take all the courses prescribed in the curriculum in the first year. Thereafter the Course of Studies is largely elective. (See Required and Elective Courses, p. 30.)

The number of credits required for the degree is 81; each student is, however, required to take a program that is in conformity with the Rules of the School and the Rules of the Court of Appeals.

Under the Rules of the Court of Appeals, no full-time day semester shall be less than 10 hours per week for the prescribed 96 calendar weeks of the day Course of Studies. No part-time evening semester shall be less than 8 hours per week for the prescribed 128 calendar weeks of the evening Course of Studies.

Under the Rules of the School, no student in the day division may take less than 12 hours nor more than 15 hours per semester. No student in the evening division may take less than 10 hours nor more than 12 per semester, except that during the Course of Studies, one eight-hour semester shall be permitted. Additional credits earned in one academic year will not permit a student to take less than 12 hours per semester (day) or 10 hours per semester (evening) in any subsequent academic year, nor may credit earned at another law school be applied to reduce the minimum required course load.
Students may be permitted to transfer from one division to the other upon formal application made to the Dean or his designate.

Students who contemplate a transfer from one division to another (day to evening or vice-versa) are advised that under the Rules of the Court of Appeals eligibility to sit for the New York Bar Examination is governed, not by the conferral of the degree, but by the successful completion of the full-time or part-time program as defined in Rule 520.4 (d) and (e) of the Rules of the Court of Appeals. A student who completes two years in the day division cannot transfer to the evening division and graduate at the end of the third year, despite the number of credits amassed, because such student will not have the requisite number of weeks called for by the Rules, i.e., 128 weeks. Conversely, an evening student transferring to the day division is on notice that a part-time program is deemed equal to three-fourths (¾) of a full-time program and to graduate from a full-time program requires 96 calendar weeks. The Rules do not permit the acceleration of either a full-time or part-time program.

The classes in the day division are scheduled principally between the hours of 9:30 A.M. and 5 P.M. on every weekday except Saturday. Certain electives may be scheduled from 4 to 6 P.M.

In the evening division, classes will be held on every weekday except Saturday, commencing at 6 P.M. Generally, a student in the evening division will be required to attend classes four evenings a week. Because of the number of electives, classes in the evening division run four periods on certain nights. Certain elective courses open to day or evening students or both may be scheduled for Saturday morning.

The School reserves the right to change the hours of classes at any time in the discretion of the faculty.

Class schedules are published at the beginning of each term.

Under the Rules governing admission to the Bar in the State of New York, the Law School must certify that bar applicants were in good and regular attendance and took and successfully completed the prescribed course of instruction required at the School for the law degree.
Further, it is clear that work in the Law School cannot be satisfactorily carried on by students who are irregular in attendance.

A student is subject to dismissal whenever his attendance becomes so irregular that the faculty deems it to constitute a bar to certification of the required "good and regular attendance," or considers it unwise to permit the student to continue. Special conditions may be imposed in other cases which the Faculty regards as serious.

DISCIPLINE

The continuance upon the rolls and the graduation of each student, the awarding of academic credits, and the granting of any certificate or degree are strictly subject to the disciplinary powers of the University. The University reserves the right in its discretion at any time to cancel a student's registration, or to refuse to award academic credits, or to deny a certificate or a degree.

The disciplinary authority of the University is vested in the President of the University in such cases as he deems proper, and, subject to the reserved powers of the President, in the deans or other officers upon whom jurisdiction may be from time to time conferred.

All students in the School of Law are governed by the provisions of the Code of Conduct adopted by the Faculty. A copy of the Code is on file in the library.

REQUIRED COURSES

The program in both first year day and evening is required. In second year day and third year evening there is a minimum number of required courses. The last year in each division is totally elective, except for the one-hour course in Professional Responsibility.

*Students must take a sufficient number of electives per semester so that with the required courses, each student carries a minimum of 12 hours in the Day Division or 10 hours in the Evening Division. The maximum number of hours per semester is 15 Day and 12 Evening.

ELECTIVE COURSES

The following courses are presently being offered as electives in the School of Law. New elective courses may be added at the discretion of the faculty as a result of a continuing study by a Faculty-Student Committee.

From the electives listed below or announced at the start of each semester, each student must select a sufficient number of elective hours to meet the hour requirements of each semester as indicated in the Courses Required for degree published above.

Students are permitted to elect not more than two courses per semester in which the final grade is assigned on a basis other than a final written examination. No more than eighteen semester hours in such elective courses will be credited toward graduation requirements. (See course coding below)
Required papers in a course or seminar must be submitted not later than the last day of classes for the semester. In individual cases of hardship, the deadline may be extended by the professor, but in no event may a paper be submitted later than the last day of examinations for that semester without written approval prior to that date by the Dean or his designate. Failure to meet the deadline for submission of a paper will constitute failure of the course or seminar by the student.

Students may elect two Clinical programs per year, one each semester, subject to a limitation of three such programs during the course of studies at the Law School.

Indicated with each elective is the semester and session in which it is offered, the number of hours, and the requirements, if any, for admission thereto. Evening students may, if they can so arrange their schedules, take any elective which is offered solely in the day division.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Students who have completed their first year of law school may earn two credits per semester by independent research under the supervision of a member of the faculty. Such projects are arranged by consultation between the student and a particular member of the faculty. Before being granted permission to register for credit for independent study, the student must submit a summary of the proposed study to the supervising faculty member. In order to gain two credits for independent study, the student must spend at least 60 hours on the project, must maintain regular contact with the professor, and must produce by the end of the semester a paper of publishable quality. In considering possible fields or topics for such independent study, students may wish to consider seminars and courses listed in this catalog but not offered in the current year.

- S. Seminar
- YC. Year Course
  1. Requires a Paper
  2. The Faculty strongly recommends that all students take this elective because a knowledge thereof is essential to practice law, not to mention to pass the Bar Examination.
  3. Seniors Only
  4. Requires Corporations
  5. Requires Labor Law
  6. Requires Constitutional Law
  7. Requires Income Taxation I
  8. Requires Mortgages
  9. Requires Evidence
  10. Requires Antitrust
  11. Not to be offered again until 1977-1978. Third year evening students who elect New Jersey Practice will take Corporations in fourth year.
ACCOUNTING FOR LAWYERS

Studies business accounting, with particular emphasis on the preparation and analysis of financial statements and such problems as revenues and costs, tangible and intangible assets, depreciation and amortization, inventory valuation, and surplus and reserves. In addition, discussion is directed to various phases of legal problems and the making of legal and financial decisions with respect to them. The course is designed for law students having little or no previous knowledge of bookkeeping and accounting.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Divided into two major areas, quasi-legislative and quasi-judicial administrative functions. In the former are included studies as to the validity of the organic statute and administrative regulations. In the latter the materials provoke discussion of the fairness of pre-trial procedure, the requisites of notice and hearing, conduct of the hearing, methods of obtaining judicial review and the scope thereof.

ADMIRALTY AND INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAW

Application of tort and contract principles to the maritime field with a consideration of traditional maritime subjects: maritime liens, collision, salvage, cargo damage, charter parties, general average, limitation of liability and ship mortgages. Briefier coverage is given to admiralty jurisdiction and procedure, federal regulation of shipping, international maritime conventions and choice of law problems.

ADVANCED ANTI-TRUST—SEMINAR

Supplements the Antitrust Law course. The following areas are included: Robinson-Patman; industrial property; regulated industries; FTC Act; administration, remedies and enforcement of federal antitrust laws; extraterritoriality of United States antitrust laws; and selected state antitrust legislation. The Antitrust Law course is a prerequisite.

ADVANCED CONVEYANCING PROBLEMS
(REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS)—SEMINAR

Devoted to the development of an understanding of modern, sophisticated real estate financing and conveyancing techniques covering such areas as leasehold mortgages and estates, sale leasebacks, air rights, joint ventures, syndications, cooperatives, condominiums, REIT’s and “wrap around” mortgage financing. There will be occasional guest discussion leaders. Enrollment is limited. Real Property Mortgages course is a prerequisite.

Advanced Corporate Problems—Seminar
Offered in cooperation with the firm of Seward & Kissel of the New York Bar. Seminar limited to 12 students approved by the professor. Prerequisites are successful completion of Corporations, Closed Corporations and Income Taxation I.

Advanced Corporate Taxation
This course will explore the Federal Income Tax consequences of corporate mergers, recapitalizations, other reorganizations and divisions; the collapsible corporation; the personal holding company; and the treatment of loss carryovers and other corporate tax attributes following corporate acquisitions and changes in ownership. Requires Corporate Taxation.

Advanced Criminal Justice—Seminar
Explores some of the more difficult and controversial subjects of criminal law and procedure, with emphasis upon those having social implications. It attempts in depth analysis of such areas as sentencing systems, plea bargaining, bail, and the insanity defense.

Advanced Problems in Evidence—Seminar
Selected problems of proof in criminal and civil litigation, with special consideration of the Federal Rules of Evidence. The particular issues studied reflect the interests of the instructor and the students, since each participant will be responsible for preparing a paper and leading a class discussion on it. Limited to 15 or 20 students who have taken or are taking Evidence.

American Legal History: The Supreme Court
This seminar will consider the relationship of the Supreme Court to the political, economic, sociological, philosophical and administrative developments since 1789. In addition to traditional cases, the nature of extra-judicial sources such as the lives and writings of the justices will be considered in an attempt to understand the unique contribution of the Court to the dispute resolution process.

Antitrust Law
Examines the basic Federal antitrust laws, primarily the Sherman Act, Clayton Act and Federal Trade Commission Act. Specific topics covered will be monopolization; price fixing; trade association operations; resale price maintenance; refusals to deal; exclusive distributorships; territorial and customer limitations; tying and exclusive dealing arrangements; joint ventures; and horizontal, vertical and conglomerate mergers.

Appellate Advocacy—Seminar

The nature and conduct of a civil or criminal appeal. Stresses the rules of appellate procedure, both state and federal, preparation of briefs and the conduct of oral argument.

Aviation Law

Considers problems in the sources and organization of the law of international and domestic air transport; routes and rates; choice of law and forum; hijacking; exculpatory clauses; carrier liability for personal injury, death and cargo damage; governmental liabilities; types of liabilities and limitations thereof; ground damage and other offensive aircraft operations, including air pollution and sonic boom.

Bankruptcy

Deals with the collection, liquidation, and distribution of a debtor's estate in a federal bankruptcy proceeding. Topics covered include bankruptcy administration, acts of bankruptcy, discharge, assets of the bankrupt estate, avoidance of property transfers antedating the bankruptcy, and claims against the bankrupt estate.

Civil Advocacy—Seminar

Deals with the techniques and strategies employed in the litigation process. Typical trial problems are considered with particular emphasis upon the methods of developing facts in the courts. Each student electing this course must have taken or be taking courses in Evidence and Civil Procedure. Emphasis is placed upon the ethical problems facing the trial lawyer. The course is designed to afford individual experience in all phases of pre-trial and trial practice. Enrollment is limited to permit personal supervision.

Civil Procedure

A comprehensive study and critical evaluation of the principles applicable to the litigation of civil matters, with particular emphasis upon the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and a comparison of those rules with those in other jurisdictions. The course considers complaints, answers, counterclaims, discovery procedures, extraordinary writs, interpleader, joinder, res judicata, jurisdiction, trials and appeals. Full year course.
Civil Rights I and II—Seminar

An advanced course in the constitutional, statutory and executive protection of individuals against discrimination on the basis of such involuntary characteristics as race, sex and national origin in personal security, voting, education, the administration of justice, employment, housing and public accommodations. The first semester concentrates on the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments and surviving reconstruction period statutes. The second semester concentrates on federal civil rights legislation and executive action since 1960. Students may take one or both semesters.

Clinical Programs

See Clinical Legal Education, page 17.

Close Corporations—Seminar

Intensive study of the problems of close corporations. Students will be required to draft the appropriate papers (e.g., certificate of incorporation, shareholder agreement) for a close corporation. Seminar limited to 14 senior students selected by the professor. Corporations is a prerequisite.*

Collective Bargaining

A study of the negotiation, administration, and renegotiation of the collective bargaining agreement. This course is designed to afford students a basic understanding of major legal principles underlying the collective bargaining relationships in their application to collective bargaining negotiations, grievance handling, arbitration, practices of labor and management, and the techniques for the resolution of impasses in negotiation. Labor Law, Basic, is a prerequisite.

Commercial Financing

Deals with the use and operation of the major credit devices employed in modern commercial financing. The course involves an intensive study of installment selling, discounting trade paper, inventory and receivables financing and the use of documents as security. The rights and liabilities of the parties, unsecured creditors, the trustee in bankruptcy, and other third parties are considered. A detailed and complete study of the structure and operation of Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code is included.

* Offered in alternate years, will next be offered Spring, 1977.

Corporations and Partnerships
Surveys the law of agency, partnerships, and other forms of unincorporated business associations. The course includes agent’s and partner’s authority and rights between principal and agent. The private business corporation and its relationship to the state, shareholders and third parties is also studied. Topics considered include the corporate entity concept, the organization of corporations, their powers, the rights and duties of promoters, officers and directors; shareholders’ derivative actions. Pertinent federal securities regulatory legislation and rules are examined. Full year course.

Criminal Advocacy—Seminar
Deals with the techniques and strategies employed in a criminal prosecution. Typical trial problems are considered with particular emphasis upon the methods of developing facts in the courts. Emphasis is placed upon the ethical problems facing the trial lawyer. The course is designed to afford individual experience in all phases of pre-trial and trial practice. Enrollment is limited to Senior students.

Criminal Justice
Begins with a precis of the crime problem and the criminal justice system. Theories of criminality and sentencing are discussed with special attention paid to status offenders, indigents and family, sex and juvenile offenders. The course proceeds to an examination of the substantive law of crimes including the sources of the law, accessoriol conduct, the elements of major crimes, anticipatoril offenses and the defenses to criminal responsibility.

Current Problems in Litigation—Seminar
A focus upon present day problems the practicing lawyer encounters in pleading, pre-trial discovery, and motion practice, as well as at trial. Emphasis will be upon litigation in the federal courts, but attention will be given also to the circumstances warranting a preference for a state rather than a federal forum in particular instances. Consideration will be given to complex and multi-party litigation. Students are expected to parparticipate in the preparation of a variety of litigation papers used at the trial court level.

Decedents' Estates

Intestate succession, adopted children, persons civilly dead; the nature of a will; testamentary capacity, fraud, duress, and undue influence; probate proceedings, right of election, contracts to make testamentary dispositions; constructive trusts, conditional wills; construction and interpretation of wills, execution, revocation, repudiation and revival.

Domestic Relations

The contract to marry, the marriage contract and the legal relation created by such contracts. The methods of legally terminating marriage, including annulment, divorce, dissolution and separation. The requisites for recognition of matrimonial decrees obtained in foreign jurisdictions are considered. Selected problems concerning legitimacy, support, alimony and separation agreements.

Economics and Antitrust—Seminar

Examines relationships between economic theory and federal antitrust policy.

Estate and Gift Taxation

An introduction to the Federal estate and gift taxes with an analysis of the tax costs associated with inter vivos gifts as well as testamentary transfers. Income Taxation I is a prerequisite.

Estate Planning

A comparative study of methods to conserve and transmit a client's estate while minimizing the impact of income, gift and estate taxes. Integration of life insurance, inter vivos gifts, revocable and irrevocable inter vivos trusts; the short term trust; disposition of business interests; testamentary trusts, powers and marital deduction; multiple and sprinkling trusts; charitable gifts and the charitable foundation. The courses in Estate and Gift Taxation and Income Taxation I are prerequisites.

A study of the rules governing the admissibility of evidence including problems of relevancy, remoteness and undue prejudice; the hearsay rule and its exceptions; the offer of evidence and objection; examination of witnesses; competency and privilege of witnesses; expert opinion evidence; judicial notice, burden of proof and presumptions. Full year course.

Federal Courts
A study of particular problems that arise in connection with the jurisdiction and law-making powers of the federal courts; case or controversy requirements; congressional controls over federal courts; appellate review powers; diversity, ancillary and pendent jurisdiction; federal question jurisdiction; and selected choice of law problems.

Income Taxation I
A study of the income taxation of individuals, estates, trusts and partnerships covering such items as gross income, permissible exemptions and deductions, accounting problems and capital gains and losses.

Income Taxation of Estates, Trusts and Partnerships
The federal income tax treatment of decedents’ estates; income in respect of a decedent; various types of trusts including accumulation trusts, charitable trusts, and grantor trusts; and the income tax problems encountered in operating in partnership form. Income Taxation I is a prerequisite.

Injunctions in Labor Disputes
Studies the use by the National Labor Relations Board of injunctive relief in the area of labor-management relations in situations involving recognition and organizational picketing, secondary boycotts, jurisdictional disputes, hot cargo agreements with an analysis of common situs, area standards, informational and consumer picketing. It will include also an examination of the discretionary power of the National Labor Relations Board to seek injunctive relief in certain unfair labor practice cases.

Insurance
Insurance distinguished from similar transactions; insurable interest in life and fire insurance. Standard fire insurance policy provisions and major provisions of life policies. Coverage; amount of recovery; representations; warranties; concealment; waiver and estoppel. Interests of others than the insured; standard mortgage clause; subrogation.

International Business Transactions
Letters of credit, export controls, tariffs, exchange controls, trade liberalization and the multilateral conventions applicable thereto. An analysis of the foreign relations power of the President. Problems of direct investment abroad, especially the extra-territorial operations of American law in tax, anti-trust, securities regulation, labor, patent, trademark and copyright. The effects of nationalism in the corporate structure and the problems of expropriation, nationalization and the protection of investments.

International Law

A study of the law governing the relations of independent nations and other entities endowed with international personality. It comprises: the nature and sources of international law; recognition of states and governments; legal personality of international organizations; rights and obligations of the individual; bases and scope of state jurisdiction, including maritime jurisdiction; sovereign and diplomatic immunities; law of treaties; state responsibility; and settlement of international disputes.

Judicial Administration

Studies litigation management in the trial courts of the United States. Attention will be given to the organization and function of both the federal and New York court systems with special reference to calendar control, jury selection, motions, class action designation, and applications for temporary relief. Trial ethics and discipline of bench and bar will be examined with stress on reform in the American trial processes. Court room visits are planned. The course should hold particular interest for students planning to clerk for a judge or to enter trial practice or court administration.

Jurisprudence—Seminar

Examines various contemporary problems raising questions of legal philosophy. Areas to be covered, among others, include theories of justice and punishment; the place in the law of intention, motive and similar concepts; judicial decision-making; and problems relating to law and morality. The following schools of legal philosophy will be emphasized: positivism, analytical jurisprudence, utilitarianism and natural law theories.

Labor Law, Basic

The rights and duties of employers, employees and labor unions under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, with respect to concerted activities of employees for their mutual protection; the collective bargaining process and related processes.

Major attention to financing the transaction, particularly to such devices as the conventional and government-insured mortgage, installment sale, stock-cooperative, condominium, long-term lease, and sale-lease-back. The course in Real Property Mortgages is a prerequisite.

Landlord and Tenant

Deals with nature of leaseholds; duties to deliver possession; condition of premises and duties to repair; quiet enjoyment; actual and constructive eviction; surrender and abandonment of premises; rent obligations; excuses from performance; security deposits; assignment and subleases. The primary concern is with law applicable to residential and small commercial tenants.

Land Use

Analysis of the legal and administrative aspects of the regulation of land use and development. The problems and techniques of urban planning, at the various levels of government. Particular attention is given to zoning, subdivision controls, public acquisition of land, tax controls, housing and urban renewal and model cities.

Law and Economics

The course will examine the use of economic reasoning in the analysis of legal problems. The course will first examine basic theoretical issues: the meaning of equity and efficiency in economics and jurisprudence, focusing on property and contract law. Then, concrete legal problems will be examined, which may include theories of corporate responsibility (e.g., Nader), the new equal protection (minimal welfare rights, school financing), the role of organized crime in the economy, and rules for tort compensation.

Law and the Environment—Seminar

Investigates the causes of deterioration of man's physical environment and the legal means to arrest such deterioration. Areas covered include inland water pollution; nuclear pollution; pollution by pesticides; destruction of estuaries and of the marine environment; oil pollution; solid waste disposal; air pollution; noise pollution; loss of recreational, scenic and wildlife areas.
Law and Medicine—Seminar

Deals with the preparation and presentation of medical proof in civil and criminal cases. Study is also given to the legal, medical, social and moral issues involved in the areas of drug abuse; right to treatment; human experimentation; organ transplants; allocation of scarce resources; criminal insanity; civil commitment; euthanasia; and abortion.

Law of the Visual Arts—Seminar

Explores rights of the artist in relation to the dealer and collector, including copyrights, “moral right,” and protection by contract; rights of the consumer, including protection from forgery and fraud; governmental intervention, including subsidization and censorship; international looting; and special taxation problems.

Legal Writing

Training in systematic legal research, in analysis of legal problems and in the development of legal writing skills. Assignments include preparation of a legal memorandum and an appellate brief. Full year course.

Legislation

Explores the organization and procedure of legislative bodies. Methods and techniques of legislative research and legislative drafting are considered, as are problems of legislative interpretation.

Narcotics and The Legal Process—Seminar

Covers the history of the problem and the evolution of legal controls of narcotic substances. It deals in detail with both federal and state drug legislation as well as the operation of the criminal enforcement system in the area of narcotics. It also investigates the problem of medical commitment of the addict and alternates to incarceration. Limited to 20 students.

N.L.R.B. Procedures—Seminar

A basic and comprehensive study of the practice and procedure before the National Labor Relations Board. Beginning with the filing of the petition in a representation proceeding and the charge in an unfair labor practice matter, the course treats various phases of the problems presented to a lawyer who deals with Labor Board matters. Labor Law, Basic, is a prerequisite.

A study of the nature, creation, and termination of trusts; future interests, including powers of appointment and the rules against perpetuities; and the administration of trusts and decedents’ estates.

Women and the Law
Examines the different ways in which the law treats men and women and the reasons therefore. Special emphasis is placed on civil rights in employment, welfare, and domestic relations.

EXAMINATIONS, GRADES, AND HONORS
As required by the Rules of the New York Court of Appeals, “all study must be evaluated by authentic written examinations except where such examination is inappropriate as in seminar and moot court courses or those courses which are principally concerned with legal writing, research or drafting.” (Rule 520.4 (c) (3)).

Written examinations are held at the end of every semester in all subjects completed therein and as essential parts thereof. Mid-semester examinations in full year courses may be scheduled at the discretion of the professor. Classroom work, so far as practical, is also a determinant of general standing.

Examinations for all classes will begin promptly at the hour announced in the examination schedule posted prior to the examination period in each semester.

Students must present themselves for examination at the scheduled examination time upon completion of every subject unless excused by the Dean or his designate. Omission to do so will constitute a failure of such examination by the student.

Examinations for both divisions are usually held on weekdays, beginning at 4:00 P.M., and on Saturdays, beginning at 10:00 A.M., during the regular examination period. The Examination Schedule is published six weeks prior to the start of the examination period.

The standing of students will be indicated by numerical grades. A grade of 60.00% constitutes a passing mark in a subject. To continue in good scholastic standing, however, a student must maintain a weighted average grade of at least 70.00% in every scholastic year.

No student who fails to attain the required year average of 70.00% will be permitted to advance into the next year or to graduate. Such a student may, however, seek permission to repeat the failed year by filing a Petition for Permission to Repeat with the Dean or his designate and by appearing personally before the Readmissions Committee at its stated sittings—usually in late July.

In case a student is permitted to defer an examination, he must take the next examination given in the subject. In the meantime, if on the examinations taken by him his weighted average is at least 70.00%, he may be allowed to continue conditionally in the School, subject to his maintaining at least a 70.00% weighted average grade when the deferred examination is taken. If on the examinations taken by him his weighted average is less than 70.00%, he will be excluded from the School unless and until on taking the deferred examination his weighted average is brought up to at least 70.00%.
Failed or omitted examinations aggregating in credit value more than one quarter of the required work of any year will constitute a failed year irrespective of the weighted average grade obtained by the student. In such case the student will not be permitted to take any re-examination in the failed subjects or to continue in the School or to be a candidate for degree.

In the case of failed or omitted examinations, if the credit value constitutes no more than one quarter of the year's required work, the examinations may be retaken at the next regularly scheduled examination period, except in the case of subjects in the final year of the course. Because of a University policy to award degrees only at stated times, the conditioned examinations for senior students will be held during the second week of August so that the degree can be conferred in September. If the examination is again failed or omitted, the student will be required to repeat the subject.

Any student who fails to pass or does not take the first examination offered in a course required to be repeated as aforesaid will not be allowed to take any further examination therein, or to continue in the School or to be a candidate for degree.

Where the content of a course, in which a student has failed or deferred the examination, has changed subsequent to said examination, the student will be required to prepare himself on the altered content of the course. Should the course be omitted so that no examination is thereafter given, the student may be required to take an additional course and to pass an examination therein in lieu of the omitted course.

No day student will be permitted to enter the third year class with any failed first year course outstanding against him; no evening student will be permitted to enter the fourth year class with any failed first or second year course outstanding against him.

HONORS

A student who attains a weighted average of 85 or better for the academic year is honored by being placed on the Dean's List for that year. A student who completes all requirements for the degree with a cumulative weighted average of 90 will receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) cum laude; one who has a cumulative weighted average of 92 will receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) magna cum laude; and one who has a cumulative weighted average of 95 or higher will receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) summa cum laude.

The Honors of the Graduating Class are awarded to the student in each of the three sections who attains the highest cumulative average for the three or four years of the course.

PRIZES

The Frances Thaddeus Wolff Memorial Prize. Henry J. Wolff, in memory of his wife, Frances Thaddeus Wolff, a graduate of the School, annually donates $300 for three awards of $100 each to that member of each session of the graduating class who has attained the highest weighted average in his studies in the final year.

Senior Prizes. In the graduating class the student attaining the second highest weighted average in his studies throughout the year will be awarded a prize of fifty dollars ($50.00).

School Prizes. In all first year classes, second year classes and in the third year evening class, the student attaining the highest weighted average in his studies throughout the year will be awarded a prize of fifty dollars ($50.00).

The Chapin Prize. A prize consisting of the income from the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), established by the will of Mrs. Mary Knox Chapin, widow of Professor H. Gerald Chapin, who for many years and until his death was a member of the Faculty of the School, is awarded annually to that graduate of the School who has attained the highest weighted average in his studies throughout the full course in the School.

Class of 1911 Prize. The Class of 1911, on the occasion of its Silver Jubilee, established a prize consisting of the yearly income from the sum of $1,500, to be awarded annually for the best essay submitted by a student in the senior class of the Law School on a legal subject to be designated annually by the Dean. In the event that in any year no essay submitted is deemed worthy of the award, the income from the fund for that year is devoted to the purchase of books for the law library.

Fordham Law Alumni Association Medals in Constitutional Law. Three gold medals, the gift of the Fordham Law Alumni Association, are awarded to those members of the graduating class who excel in Constitutional Law in their particular sections.

The Cornelius W. Wickersham, Jr. Award. The Federal Bar Council confers the Cornelius W. Wickersham, Jr. Award on the student most proficient in Constitutional Law. It honors the memory of the late Mr. Wickersham, who was a prominent member of the New York Bar, served as United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York, and was a distinguished past president of the Federal Bar Council. The award consists of an outstanding work in the field of Constitutional Law.

George W. Bacon Award. A plaque and certificates are awarded annually by the National Legal Fraternity of Gamma Eta Gamma to those students who are adjudged by the Moot Court Faculty Adviser to have excelled in Moot Court competition, both trial and appellate.

Prizes of the West Publishing Company. West Publishing Company awards one selected title of Corpus Juris Secundum to a student in each year who, in the opinion of the Faculty Committee on Prizes, has made the most significant contribution toward over-all legal scholarship and a selected title from the Hornbook Series to the student in each year who achieves the highest scholastic average in his year.

The United States Law Week Award. A year's subscription to the United States Law Week is awarded by the Bureau of National Affairs, Inc., of Washington, D.C., to the graduating student who is adjudged by a committee of the Faculty to have made the most satisfactory scholastic progress in his final year.

"American Jurisprudence" Prizes. The joint publishers of "American Jurisprudence," Bancroft-Whitney of San Francisco, California, and The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company of Rochester, New York, present to the School separately bound encyclopedia articles on selected subjects. These are awarded to the highest ranking student in the selected courses, and the selection of the winners is determined by the professors teaching the respective courses.

Williams Press Official Reports Award. Williams Press, Inc. presents to the member of the graduating class, who resides in and intends to practice in New York State and who maintains the highest standing in Contracts, Remedies, Evidence, Real Property and Torts: a complete set of the New York Reports, 2nd Series, together with one year's subscription to the Official Reports including the Advance Sheets and Session Law pamphlets.

The Guild of Catholic Lawyers, Inc. Prize. A $100 government bond is awarded to the student who attains the highest grade in Jurisprudence.

The Andrew Mark Stillman Memorial Prize. The family, friends and classmates of the late Andrew M. Stillman, who was an honor student and a member of the evening division, class of '74, have established a fund in his memory to award a plaque and a check in the amount of $50.00 annually to the graduating student in each section who attains the highest cumulative average for the course of studies.

I. Maurice Wormser Award. A plaque and certificates are awarded annually by the Student Bar Association of Fordham Law School to those four students who are adjudged to have excelled in I. Maurice Wormser Competition.

The Emmet J. McCormack Foundation Prize. A prize consisting of the income from the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) is awarded annually to that student who has attained the highest grade in Admiralty Law. The Law School Alumni Association administers this fund.

Guaranteed Title Company Award. A prize of $100 and a Certificate of Award is awarded annually, by the Guaranteed Title Company of New York City to the student who writes the best article based upon legal research in the field of Real Property. The subjects are to be approved and the winner selected by a Faculty Committee, composed of professors teaching the courses in Real Property.

Commercial Law Prize. The Law Students Award Committee of Regional Members Association of the Commercial Law League of America for the Second District has established a prize to be conferred annually on the student who achieves the highest grades in the courses in Commercial Transactions and Commercial Financing. The prize consists of the following three volumes: Secured Transactions Under the Uniform Commercial Code, by Peter F. Coogan, William F.
Hogan, and Detlev F. Vagts (2 vol.) and Sales and Bulk Transfers Under the Uniform Commercial Code by Richard W. Duesenberg and Lawrence B. King (1 vol.).

PLACEMENT

The Placement Office, under the direction of a full-time professional placement director, is located in Room 128 on the main floor of the Law School. The office is open during every business day of the year. The phone numbers are (212) 956-5646 and 956-6647.

The primary function of the office is to assist graduating students who seek permanent positions and second year students who seek summer associate positions. The office arranges interviews at the School chiefly during the months of October, November, and December and to a lesser degree throughout the year. The Director of Placement also provides career counseling and advises all candidates for judicial clerkships.

The services of the Placement Office are also available to students in both divisions, who seek full or part-time positions during the school year. To that end, the Office maintains a listing of all positions by category.

The services of the Placement Office are also available to all Alumni of the Law School.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR

Some states, for example, Alabama, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, and Texas, require that persons undertaking the study of law with a view toward practicing in those states register as candidates for the bar when they begin their study of law or prior to such study. Each applicant for admission to the School is advised to investigate the requirements of the state in which he intends to practice. The Director of Admissions will furnish on request the address of the particular state agency to which inquiry should be made. Timely fulfillment of these requirements for practice in the aforementioned states is essential and each student should complete his registration before classes begin. New York State does not require registration prior to the commencement of law school.
Graduates of the School who are over twenty-one years of age and are actual residents of New York State, or who intend to become residents before the date of the examination, and intend in good faith to maintain such actual residence for at least six months prior to applying for admission to the Bar of this State, or who intend in good faith to commence full-time employment in the State not later than two months after the date fixed for the New York State Bar Examination and intend in good faith to continue to be so employed for a period of at least six months prior to applying for admission to practice, are eligible to take the New York State Bar Examination.

STUDENT SOCIETIES

THE FORDHAM LAW REVIEW

The Fordham Law Review is published six times during the school year by a board of student editors, chosen on the basis of their scholarship and writing ability. The Review contains articles on a broad range of legal subjects written by members of the bar, by law school professors and by others experts in a particular area of the law, as well as notes on recent decisions and comments on legal topics prepared by the board of student editors. The publication of the Review and its use in various courses are considered part of the general educational program of the School. Law Review membership is the highest academic honor the School can confer and Law Review experience is considered ideal training for the practice of law.

The Law Review offices, on the second floor of the classroom wing, overlook the main reading room of the library. A private library and conference room is maintained by the Law Review on the same floor.

THE URBAN LAW JOURNAL

The Urban Law Journal is published three times during the school year by a board of student editors and a staff selected on the basis of a writing sample competition which is held during the spring semester. Its purpose is to provide students with an opportunity to develop their skills in creative legal thinking, legal research and legal writing.
Each member of the staff is encouraged to submit an article on some area of Urban Law which is of current interest. Each issue also contains an article by a distinguished member of the legal or public interest community.

The office of the Law Journal is located on the third floor of the Law School.

The faculty considers participation in moot court activities to be one of the more important aspects of the student's training. Participation in the program is required for first year students, but there are several programs for upperclassmen which are voluntary and provide excellent opportunities for the development of appellate and trial advocacy skills.

These programs are administered by the Moot Court Board. The Board is composed of fifteen members, seven of whom are selected on the basis of class rank from among first year students and the remainder on the basis of participation in the Mulligan and Wormser Moot Court Competitions coupled with writing ability and interest in the program. The purpose of the Board is to coordinate and manage the various moot court competitions offered by the school, and in this connection to develop, research and write the problems to be used in the competitions.

FRESHMAN MOOT COURT: In the spring semester of first year an appellate moot court competition is conducted with upperclassmen and faculty as judges and teams of first year students arguing moot questions of law on appeal from trial records. This co-curricular program is required for all students in first year.

THE WILLIAM HUGHES MULLIGAN MOOT COURT PROGRAM: During the summer months an appellate moot court competition is held and is open to competitors from each division of the law school.

THE I. MAURICE WORMSER COMPETITION: In the fall semester of the academic year, second year day and third year evening students are eligible to participate in an appellate moot court competition directed toward selection of the School of Law's national moot court team for the following year. Judges in the early rounds include members of the faculty and distinguished alumni of the School of Law and in the later rounds, federal and state judges.

MOOT COURT TEAM: From the top students in the Wormser Competition and by selection of a Faculty Committee a team of three students is chosen annually to represent Fordham in the Sutherland Cup Competition and in the National Moot Court Competition.

Two other opportunities are available to students interested in developing their advocacy skills.

TRIAL MOOT COURT: Trial moot courts are held during the fall semester in order to provide seniors in the School of Law with an opportunity to experience trial advocacy before state and federal judges. Teams of lawyers for prosecution and defense contest criminal cases and carry their inquiry from indictment to verdict with underclassmen acting as defendants, witnesses, and jurors.

THE JESSUP COMPETITION: A team of students represents the Fordham International Law Society in the annual International Law Moot Court Competition sponsored by the American Society of International Law.

The Student Bar Association is the representative organization of the Law School student body and is a member of the Law Student Division — American Bar Association. The SBA President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer and the elected representatives of each class section constitute the governing body of the Association.

The SBA serves as a channel of communication between the students and the School of Law faculty and the University administration. The SBA promotes student participation in the investigatory and governing committees in the School of Law.

The SBA also manages all co- and extra-curricular activities within the Law School. Among these activities are the Law Forum, a series of guest lectures by persons of prominence in the law and public affairs. The Association also underwrites the operation of the school newspaper, The Advocate, and performs such service functions as staffing a student cooperative bookstore, publishing a student directory, organizing a blood drive, offering low cost health insurance to students, and sponsoring several social events during the year.

FORDHAM INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY

The Society was founded in order to further student interest and participation in the fields of international law, organization, and trade. The Society is a member of the Association of Student International Law Societies and regularly participates in the regional meetings and conferences of that group, in addition to participating in the annual meeting of the American Society of International Law in Washington, D.C. The Society sponsors a team to represent the Law School in the prestigious Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, providing students with a unique opportunity to write and argue on complex and timely questions of international law. In a recent Jessup Competition, Fordham's team received an award for submitting the best written memorials in national competition.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COUNCIL

The Environmental Law Council of the School is designed to give law students an opportunity to develop their legal skills while participating in the efforts to preserve and restore our natural environment. Since its founding in 1969, members of the Council have been engaged in legal research for the Natural Resources Defense Council, a New York environmental law firm involved in anti-pollution litigation throughout the country.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Two national legal fraternities, Gamma Eta Gamma and Phi Alpha Delta, maintain active chapters at the Law School. Both strive to establish an enduring camaraderie among men and women with similar professional goals by programs emphasizing the social and cultural aspects of the lawyer's life. A branch of the national legal sorority, Kappa Beta Pi, was established at the Law School to provide a special forum for women studying law.
FORDHAM LAW WOMEN

Fordham Law Women meet regularly to create a more viable role for themselves and to deal with the problems that women encounter during the course of their legal education. Developing courses relating to women and the law, increasing the number of women at the school, and raising the level of awareness of the law school community towards its women are some of their concerns. Any women with questions about law school should feel free to contact them through the admissions office.

STUDENT FACILITIES

UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

In addition to the Law Library, Fordham maintains libraries at Lowenstein Center (adjacent to the Law School) and at Duane Library and Keating Hall on the Rose Hill Campus with collections which total more than 767,000 volumes. A Computer Center at Rose Hill with tie-in lines at Lowenstein Center, and Language Laboratories at both campuses are also available for student and faculty use.

The Generoso Pope Memorial Auditorium in Lowenstein Center, and Collins Auditorium and Little Theatre (at Rose Hill) afford ample facilities for student dramatic productions. A spacious gymnasium, swimming pool, ball fields, track, and tennis courts are among the athletic facilities available for student use at Rose Hill.

HOUSING FACILITIES

Although the Law School does not maintain dormitory facilities, the University maintains a Housing Office to assist students in locating off campus housing. The office can be reached by writing to Housing Office, Fordham University, Bronx, New York 10048.

In addition a limited number of apartments are available to Law students in a new apartment-dormitory on the Rose Hill Campus.

DINING FACILITIES

A cafeteria is located on the ground floor of the Law School. It has a serving and table capacity to accommodate 120 people. In addition, there is a spacious dining room located on the Plaza level of the Lowenstein Center.
The Law Alumni Association invites all graduates and former students to join the Association, which is organized to foster the welfare of the Law School and maintain the honor and dignity of the profession of the law.

The Association aims to acquaint all its members with the latest developments in the progress of the Law School; to serve as a clearing house for all suggestions from those who are interested in the growth of the School and to assist in the placing of its members, in cooperation with the School's placement service. Frances M. Blake, Executive Secretary, maintains an office in the Law School.

The Association publishes a Directory of its members, listing the names of all members of the Association by class, geographical location, alphabetically, and firm or other affiliation.

Membership in the Fordham Law Review Association is open to graduate members of the Fordham Law Review. Its aim is to maintain among its members a continuing interest in legal scholarship and in the Fordham Law Review. In addition to several social reunions each year, it sponsors the Annual Law Review Association Dinner at which the graduating members of the Fordham Law Review are awarded their certificates of membership.
