Books Received

Follow this and additional works at: https://ir.lawnet.fordham.edu/flr

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Books Received, 32 Fordham L. Rev. 407 (1963).
Available at: https://ir.lawnet.fordham.edu/flr/vol32/iss2/10

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by FLASH: The Fordham Law Archive of Scholarship and History. It has been accepted for inclusion in Fordham Law Review by an authorized editor of FLASH: The Fordham Law Archive of Scholarship and History. For more information, please contact tmelnick@law.fordham.edu.
BOOKS RECEIVED

THE AMERICAN FEDERAL EXECUTIVE. By W. Lloyd Warner, Paul P. Van Riper, Norman H. Martin and Orvis F. Collins. New Haven and London: Yale University Press. 1963. Pp. xvii, 405. $7.50. This study projects the composite image of the elite of the civil, foreign and military services, their backgrounds, education, marriages and careers.

THE ANATOMY OF LIBERTY. By William O. Douglas. New York: Trident Press. 1963. Pp. xxv, 194. $3.95. Mr. Justice Douglas concludes that only durable institutions built upon the rule of law can now save us from destroying ourselves in a nuclear holocaust.

THE APPROACH TO SELF-GOVERNMENT. By Sir Ivor Jennings. Boston: Beacon Press. 1963. Pp. viii, 204. $1.75 paperbound reprint. A discussion of the major problems of the transition from dependent to independent status and the political issues vital to new countries searching for political forms.

407

BOOKS RECEIVED

NEW YORK PRACTICE UNDER THE CPLR. By Herbert M. Wachtell. New York: Practising Law Institute. 1963. Pp. 444. $15.00. A concise analysis of New York practice which clarifies the important changes and includes citations of cases still applicable under the new law.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF LAW IN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE. By Carl Joachim Friedrich. Chicago and London: The University of Chicago Press. 2d ed. 1963. Pp. xii, 297. $6.50. A comprehensive survey of western legal philosophy from the Old Testament to the present on which is based the author's idea that to have authority law must be just, and law is just if, and insofar as, its content can be approved by reason.

THE TRIAL OF THE FUTURE: CHALLENGE TO THE LAW. By Bernard Botein and Murray A. Gordon. New York: Simon & Shuster. 1963. Pp. 185. $3.95. A spell-out of Judge Botein's proposal for a successor to the Law Revision Commission, assigned and equipped to anticipate change, and to keep the judicial process in line with the revolutionary challenge of a world being wrenched out of its old shape by new forces and new ideas.

collection designed to illuminate problems and suggest solutions regarding the church-state controversy, and to stimulate more effective communication between opposing factions.

* Reviewed in this volume.