The Honorable Geraldine Ferraro
United States House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Representative Ferraro:

I admire you very much. I've admired your career in Congress, and I believe you have been doing a fine job.

I hope Vice*President Mondale chooses you as a running mate - - I'd be more likely to vote for him if he did. If he doesn't choose you as a running mate, I hope that he finds a position for you in the cabinet if he wins, and if he doesn't win, I hope you decide to further your career by running against D'Amato for Senate in 1986. Have you considered either of these alternatives?

I was very impressed with you in your interview with Barbara Walters on 20/20. I, too, am a Catholic, and I personally abhor abortion, but I support a woman's right to choose that option. I hope your family is well, and please convey them my regards, especially ~~your~~ mother, who must have been a great inspiration to you.

Representative Ferraro, will you please be so kind as to send me your autograph? I'd be honored to have a signed note, photo, or card from you.

Thank you.

Sincerely Yours,
