A 1933 graduate of Fordham College and a 1936 graduate of the School of Law, John F. Sonnett, was a senior partner in the firm of Cahill Gordon & Reindel. His death in July 1969 was a great loss to the profession and to his alma mater. His excellence as an advocate is memorialized through this lecture series, which is presented by his friends and former partners.

Founded in 1841, Fordham is New York City's Jesuit University. This year the School of Law celebrates 90 years in the service of others.
