County Re-entry Task Forces are located across New York State

County Re-Entry Task Forces (CRTF) are located in New York City and upstate counties and are designed to help individuals who are returning to their communities after release from state prison. Two state agencies – the Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) and Department of Corrections and Community Supervision (DOCCS) – collaborate to support the CRTFs.

Each CRTF works with DCJS, DOCCS, county and community agencies, and human service providers to help eligible individuals get programs and services that meet their needs when returning to the community.

The CRTF in your community may be able to help you:

- Find services to promote your growth and positive behavior
- Find a job and/or a place to live
- Obtain a non-driver's license or other ID
- Reconnect with family and community

Re-entry Services are available in 20 counties in New York State!

Re-entry Service Coordination may help you meet Parole conditions while accessing other needed services.

Employment

CRTFs can provide assistance with writing resumes, developing interview skills, obtaining job counseling and finding a part-time or full-time job.

Housing

CRTFs assist with obtaining transitional, temporary or permanent housing.

Cognitive Behavioral Programs

CRTFs have trained staff to help provide these programs, which are designed to help change negative thinking and reduce your risk of committing a new crime.

Substance Abuse Treatment

CRTFs work with alcohol and substance abuse service providers who can help you get needed treatment.

Education/Training

CRTFs can place you in high school equivalency programs, adult education, vocational training or college prep courses.

CRTFs can provide assistance to:

- Moderate- to high-risk individuals assessed as Supervision Level 1, 2 or 3 by DOCCS
- Women with high service needs
- Individuals who have been incarcerated for over 20+ years
- Individuals who served their entire sentence and are released from prison without supervision (Maximum Expiration)
- Teens and young adults on parole or recently released from an Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS) residential facility
- Individuals with mental illness, severe medical issues, those with hearing, visual or physical impairments or those who are developmentally disabled

For more information:

Discuss your eligibility for assistance from the CRTF in your community with your Offender Rehabilitation Counselor or assigned parole officer. If you will not be on parole supervision upon release, you may directly contact the CRTF in your community for assistance.
