Dear Mrs. Ferraro:

I think this card was waiting for you.

My friends and I are ecstatic that you were chosen as the running mate for Walter Mondale.

I had the pleasure of hearing you as the keynote speaker at the annual convention in Hartford of the National Federation of Democratic Women. This was just after you had been elected to Congress. I have always remembered you and recognized the name.

When the Convention is over and things settle down a little I'll be hoping to hear from your team so we, in Morris County, will know how we can help.

I'm a former Municipal Chairman and also serve as a Committeewoman.

All the best to you.

Sincerely,
