New Skills Outreach Program Debut

Our new skills outreach program, Table of Authority, is designed to bring research and law practice training to law students who might not find their way to the reference desk in the library. At our first event on October 16th, librarians set up shop at a table in the 3rd floor commons and shared tips for research success with 1Ls preparing for Legal Writing's open memo assignment. Each bi-monthly event will feature a new research or practice technology skill.
