DEDICATION

This edition of the Fordham University School of Law Yearbook is dedicated to those students who helped to make its publication possible: Michael Ackerman, Ellen Auwarter, John Calvelli, Wally Collins, Paul Curnin, Barbara Curran, Louis DiChiara, Brian Dignan, Patrick Dunleavy, Gary Eckstein, Marie Inserra, Janine Launay, Pat Lenard, Jacki Rejan, Dina Stern, and Gretchen Walsh. Especially helpful were Wally Collins, Photographer and Chief Assistant and Brian Dignan, Photographer.

Finally, special thanks go to the people at Davis Studios, who provided us with film, developing, photographic advice and equipment, graduate portraits, and excellent service; George Geer of The Delmar Company, our publishers; the I.L.J. for use of their facilities; and Deans Robert Reilly and Linda Young.

“Something Attempted, Something Done,
Has Earned a Night’s Repose.”

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW
The Village Blacksmith
“Each lawyer must find within his own conscience the touchstone against which to test the extent to which his actions should rise above the minimum standards. But in the last analysis it is the desire for the respect and confidence of the members of his profession and of the society which he serves that should provide to a lawyer the incentive for the highest possible degree of ethical conduct.”
