To Dear Congressman

OFFICE OF G. Ferraro

Hello! from Australia.

First my sincere congratulations on your vice presidency to Mr. Mondale.

I'm very thrilled a woman coming to high places. I'm proud of you. it proves we don't have to stay in the kitchen with our elbows in soap suds, it's all changed thank goodness, we can still be loving wives, mothers, & still help are fellow persons.

November I'll watch & listen to the voting & pray you & Mr. Mondale get your tickets to the "White House" I'll pray, cheer for you especially. God Bless

My thoughts of America are great

The wonderful friendships
we had in Adelaide in World War II. your men billeted in our homes.

giving them a little of home cooking etc.

I give my thanks to America who kept us safe from the enemy. a little of myself & family. age 65 (just had a birthday.) a widow of an R.A.F engineer with two lovely children my son [redacted] (40) + my daughter [redacted] 29 who lives with me + cares for me too I guess you'd say spoils me but I loved it all.

As you can guess, I'm a Senior Citizen enjoy myself with folk in bus tours. companionship + share peoples sickness, tragedies as it happens in our time of life To some myself up. I'm a recycled teenager + enjoy everyday as it comes.

Now "be Good Luck" + hope all goes well for you both
"Good Health"
I am
Yours Very Sincerely
