Dear Mrs. Ferraro:

I wanted to congratulate you on your nomination of Vice-President in the upcoming election. I have always admired you for your down to earth qualities in dealing with people.

DISTRICT OFFICE

When I was in Washington, D.C. working on a congressional report on voting behavior, I had the opportunity to interview a few of your staff and I was very impressed with they way you dealt with your constituents.

I have been working on the Mondale campaign and in August, I will will begin law school at Rutgers University in Camden. If there is anything I could do for your campaign in that area, please let me know.

I hope to run for Congress after I have received my law degree and gained more political experience. I would like to use you as my role model because I feel you are a more "human" politician. I wish you the best of luck in the election.

Sincerely yours,

[REDACTED]

P.S. If you set up an office in the Camden area for your campaign, please let me know so that I can volunteer my services there.
