DETAILED PRESENT OFFENSE: On 12/02/94, at approximately 3:43pm, police responded to a radio call of "suspicious males" inside [REDACTED] Brooklyn, NY. Four males known as [REDACTED] robbed the store between the time the call to police was placed and the time the police arrived. [REDACTED], armed with a 9mm semi-automatic pistol, announced a robbery was in progress and demanded money from the cash register. Larrier received $70.00 from the cash register.

The subject displayed, an inoperable pellet gun and ordered one of the victims to empty his pockets and took $40.00 and a pocket knife. [REDACTED] and the subject ordered the two victims into a room in the store known as the "clothing room" and tied the complainants up. [REDACTED] (subject's brother) and [REDACTED] went into "the clothing Room" and began to bind the victims with duct tape. Police arrived at the scene of the incident and the subject positioned himself behind the counter and posed as an employee. The two officers entered the store and asked if someone called 911 from the location. The subject assured the police officers that there must have been a mistake and there everything was fine. [REDACTED] emerged from behind the wall and opened fire on the police officers, fatally striking one in the head and face.

Police Officers returned fire striking [REDACTED] before running out of the store to radio for back-up. The other three defendants initially took cover in the "clothing room" where the bound victims remained before running down to the store basement. Other police units arrived on the scene, and officers entered the store where shooting continued. During this time, a police officer removed the body of the fallen officer. The officers then heard voices coming from the "clothing room" and found the victims and removed them from the store during a lull in the shooting. The subject and 2 of his co-defendants emerged from the basement and the officers began to fire. The subject and his co-defendants ran back down into the basement. The officers began going down the basement steps where they found [REDACTED], deceased, [REDACTED], shot in the buttocks, the subject and other co-defendant [REDACTED]. All were placed under arrest.
