Maloney Library Year End Review 2018

LawTech@Maloney Library

This fall we launched LawTech@Maloney Library, a slate of initiatives designed to help Fordham Law students prepare to enter the ever more technologically sophisticated practice of law.

In Fall 2018

- 40 students were trained in advanced Microsoft Office for legal practice through our subscription to Procertas Legal Technology Assessment
- We presented our basic e-discovery session in a 1L Civil Procedure section and offered it to all sections by request.
- We presented a stand-alone “lunch’n’learn” session on litigation analytics.

For Spring 2019

- We will offer two additional legal technology “modules” offered both in substantive classes and as stand-alone lunch’n’learns covering basic cybersecurity for law practice and case management technology.
- Our two-credit course, Law Practice Technology, is fully subscribed for the spring semester.
