Dear Ms. Ferraro:

I regret that I was not at The Executive Mansion at the time of your visit. The Governor enjoyed his meeting with you, and we are both grateful for your thoughtful gift of delicious apples.

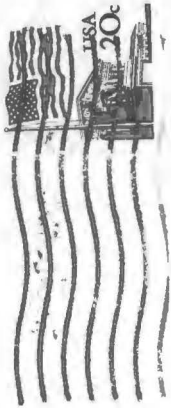

Yesterday I had the pleasure of sitting on the platform with Senator Ted Kennedy when he delivered a speech at Samford University in Birmingham. He is a most effective spokesman for Mr. Mondale and you, and he received a warm reception.

Again, please accept my apology for not being able to receive you in person on your visit. I hope that I will have the pleasure of meeting you on another occasion in the near future.

Sincerely,
