The New Maloney Library Website

With its simple, clean design, our new website makes it easy to find information about popular library services, while an enhanced search allowing you to find a variety of materials such as books, articles, databases, course reserve, and FLASH articles, all with a single search.

Of particular interest to you will be our Faculty Services page where you can find links to our resources like the Faculty Scholarship Guide, information about the Faculty Liaison Program and various other services

In anticipation of the changes you may encounter as you use our new website, the library has created three brief instructional videos to help orient you to the new site and take advantage of all of its functionality. The videos are as follows:

- Introduction to the New Website
- Introduction to Searching
- Searching the Catalog

Of course your library liaison remains available to address any questions or concerns you have with our new website, and you are also welcome to call the reference desk for immediate assistance if you so require it.

HIGHLIGHTS

Jennifer Gordon, Professor of Law, Fordham University School of Law

Christina Greer, Associate Professor, Political Science, Fordham University

Behind the Book returns with a September program exploring the contemporary immigration debate. Professors Jennifer Gordon and Christina Greer (Associate Professor, Political Science, Fordham University) will discuss their respective scholarship on immigration, labor, identity, politics, and the law. The Maloney Library's Victor Essien will moderate the event. Join us on Wednesday, September 20, 2017, 12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m., Room 7-119. Pizza and refreshments provided.

The Library is currently trialing a current awareness and news monitoring tool called Vable, which allows us to build you a newsletter of updates from any number of websites and databases. Please contact your Library liaison to learn more

Due to security policy changes at Westlaw, Law Library staff will no longer be able to look up faculty Westlaw passwords. If you have forgotten your Westlaw username or password, please use the "Forgot username?" or "Forgot password?" links on the sign-on page. If you are unsure about how to reclaim your password, please contact your Library liaison for assistance.

History of Capital Punishment

Includes the Eugene G. Wanger and Marilyn Wanger Death Penalty Collection: A Descriptive Bibliography

The Maloney Library now provides access to HeinOnline's History of Capital Punishment library. This database offers an easy-to-search collection of historic resources on the death penalty, ranging from books and scholarly commentary to original accounts of trials and government hearings. If you have any problems or would like more information, please contact the Reference Desk (212-636-6908) or your library liaison.
