Dear Mr. Feerick:

Your letter to Father McKenna arrived and I presumed to open it since Father McKenna is in Nigeria. He was assigned there this past summer and he is serving as a Secretary for Education to the Catholic Bishops in that country.

I shall try to see that your article will be sent to him. One of your other Professors, Dr. Frasca, read it with interest.

In case you would like to write to Father McKenna, I enclose his address.

Congratulations on your article. We are always delighted at the success of our former students in this Department.

Very sincerely yours,

James C. Finlay, S.J.
