Faculty Liaison Survey Results

The Maloney Library would like to thank those of you that completed the Liaison Program Survey that was administered by the library in February.

Here are a few highlights from the survey responses:

- 32 faculty members responded.
- Average satisfaction score: 4.67 (out of 5).
- Most faculty members are very satisfied with the services we are currently providing.
- The library could more clearly communicate the services offered through the liaison program.
- The liaison librarians could be more proactive in providing research assistance.

Thank you for participating in the survey and for helping to improve library services to faculty. If you missed the full report that was emailed to the faculty on March 12th, please contact Kelly Leong, kleong4@fordham.edu, for a copy.

HIGHLIGHTS

Transnational Dispute Management
The network for international arbitration, mediation and ADR, international investment law and Transnational Dispute Management

New Resource Database: Transnational Dispute Management

Transnational Dispute Management (TDM) is a peer-reviewed online journal that publishes articles on various aspects of international arbitration with a special focus on investment arbitration. With our online subscription, you have access to a large document collection that contains laws, regulations, contracts, guidelines, tribunal/court awards, treaties, agreements, forms, and model instruments. Access from <http://lawlib1.lawnet.fordham.edu/databases/t.html>.

Contact your liaison with any questions about using TDM for your research or teaching.
