Dear Congresswoman Ferraro,

I just had to write to congratulate you on your recent nomination.

You see, I was born Geraldine Ferraro also!! I'm the only child of [REDACTED] Ferraro and was born on October 27, 1947, in Passaic N.J. It is an uncommon name combination, since Geraldine is of "Irish or Gaelic" origin, but that's the name my parents loved.

Recently, so many, many, people are asking if we're related. I just say "could be" since my grandfather migrated to this country from Salerno, Italy, which is not too far from your family in Naples.

Presently, I live in River Edge, N.J., with my husband, [REDACTED], and our two daughters, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], ages 7 and 4.

Most important though, is your wonderful professional and personal accomplishment - our first woman vice-presidential candidate! I think you represent the typical American woman being a working mother, loving wife, one who is church-going, politically minded, family oriented, and "bargain" hunting, all of which help make our households run smoothly in today's society. You'd have my utmost respect and admiration even if your name wasn't Geraldine Ferraro!!

The next several months of campaigning will be most hectic and exciting to say the least. If ever in our area of Bergen County and if your schedule allows, please know that you have an open invitation to visit with me and my family.

We're all behind you — a "Ferraro" in the White House, and it couldn't have happened to a more deserving person. Good Luck to you and Mr. Mondale.

Most Sincerely,

[Redacted]
