Rep. Geraldine Ferraro

Dear Ms. Ferraro,

Just want you to know that we believe you are a super person. My whole family agrees.

To give you a picture of your general appeal, our extended family ranges from 94 to 18 yrs old.

My father, 94, my husband's mother, 81, my husband and I, 62 and 60, with six children, 41 to 18, are all strong Mondale-Ferraro supporters.

In education we range from college grads to grammar school drop-outs. Our occupations and income follow the same curve.

In Florida, we have another part of our family and they are rooting for you also.
PS. A few campaign suggestions!

Reagan says he is the prophet of prosperity, etc. vs Mondale's somber realities.

How about 1980 when he was on the outside? According to him, then the country was going down the drain if we didn't elect him.

Reagan didn't lower inflation, OPEC did that for him. The oil glut was his lucky break.

On abortion, I have heard reports that he didn't oppose abortion as governor of California - check that out please. Can it you mention that?

And his pose of not being part of govt - that's ridiculous.

The man was governor of Cal. For 8 yrs and 4 more as Pres.-His pose is ridiculous.

Good Luck to you Walter!

You conduct at your press conference was magnificent, despite the outrageous behavior of some of the reporters.

Despite the agony involved, and your husband has our sympathy, the whole experience increased our belief in your ability to handle problems.

The first time I heard you, with Marty Wayne on WNYC. I was greatly impressed with your intelligence and understanding of the situation in Central America.

The Mondale-Ferraro team is great. Everyone I've spoken to supports Mondale choice for V.P., especially the women.

Despite the polls, I believe we have a good chance in November.

Keep up the fight! yours truly
