Dear Mr. Feerick:

I appreciated your sending me a copy of your article on "Presidential Inability."

This is a subject in which I am most interested, but due to the heavy pressures of my legal practice at this time I would not be able to do justice to a letter commenting on the article. If my schedule should lighten up in the period ahead, I will have the article in my reading file and will try to drop you a note.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Richard M. Nixon
