United States Senate

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

February 14, 1964

Mr. John D. Feerick
551 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York

Dear John:

I am deeply grateful that you have been able to find time in your busy schedule to testify before the Subcommittee on Constitutional Amendments.

I am certain that your testimony will provide the Committee with keen insight into the problems of Presidential inability and vacancies in the Vice Presidency. I am hopeful that the Committee and the Congress will soon reach a reasonable consensus that can then be submitted to the several States.

We have you scheduled to appear at 11:00 a. m. on February 28. If this time proves inconvenient to you, please inform us immediately. If you might provide me with a brief biographical sketch, it would be helpful in preparing my introductory remarks. Should you decide to speak from a prepared text, I would appreciate having copies 48 hours in advance for members of the Committee and the press.

I will look forward to seeing you again and to hearing your testimony.

Sincerely,

Birch Bayh
United States Senator
