HIGHLIGHTS

Congratulations to Gail McDonald On Her Promotion to Head of Research and Instruction!

We are happy to announce that the Maloney Library has promoted Senior Reference Librarian Gail McDonald to Head of Research and Instruction. Gail will oversee a staff of dual-degreed librarians (J.D. and M.L.S.) who assist faculty with research; conduct research training sessions with journal members, externship classes, competition teams, and note and paper writers; provide research support to centers and institutes; teach 1L legal research, LL.M. legal research, and advanced legal research courses; make collection acquisition decisions; and staff the reference desk six days and evening a week. Gail can be reached by email at gmcDonald5@law.fordham.edu and by phone at 212-636-7005.

Maloney Library's Tech Lunch 'n' Learns for Spring 2023

Designed to raise our students' consciousness about law practice technology tools, promote their technological competence, and introduce them to careers in the legal technology field, the Maloney Library's Tech Lunch 'n' Learn program has organized another slate of entertaining and useful programs for the spring semester. See the schedule below. All students, staff, faculty, and alumni are welcome to attend.

Administrative Law is a hot topic. ProQuest Regulatory Insight helps you dig deeper.

The law library is happy to announce that we now offer access to ProQuest Regulatory Insight!

This research tool indexes and catalogs the Federal Register notices, proposed rules, and promulgated rules associated with specific statutes and executive orders. Scholars, instructors and students can take advantage of the platform using an array of precise filtering tools to support their administrative and regulatory research.
