Dear Geraldine:

I call you by your first name because I feel you could be a real friend.

I've been watching you on T.V. I've read & read all the stories in the papers.

I watched you on T.V. to-night & I want you to know you have many people who like you & admire you. I can't tell you how proud you make me feel. I too am of Italian parents & a Catholic; & I understand the remark you made of "Italian husbands." My husband is not Italian he's Portuguese, I was raised in an

Itakin home. I'm proud of my heritage

I don't know what will happen in November but I want you to know I'm on your side.

When I see you on T.V. or in the papers you bring a smile into my day.

God bless & God
Bless you & your family.

Sincerely,

[Redacted signature]
