Complete the Faculty Satisfaction Survey!

To date, sixteen faculty members have completed the Maloney Library's faculty satisfaction survey. Please add your voice (it's anonymous) so that we can identify unmet needs, improve service, and optimally allocate resources. It only takes about 10 minutes. Survey closes 9/30.

Large Demand for Reserve Copies of Casebooks

Fall 2023

- 272 checkouts for all titles
- 22 titles (81%) have had at least 1 check out.

In response to the outrageous cost of casebooks and persistent supply chain delays affecting publishers, Amazon, and the Fordham University Bookstore, the Maloney Library purchases one copy of the required casebook for each 1L course, for required upper-level courses, and for courses tested on the New York Bar Exam, and makes them available to students for two-hour borrowing through our course reserve collection. This year, course reserve borrowing has been at an all-time high.

The Maloney Library Welcomes New Students with a Scavenger Hunt!

More than 130 students participated in the Maloney Library's August 30th scavenger hunt designed to introduce new students to library resources, facilities, staff, and to the Lexis, Westlaw, and Bloomberg Law representatives. Those who completed the scavenger hunt by answering questions about library locations, policies, services, and collections were entered into a prize drawing.
