Dear Congresswoman Ferraro:

As a Catholic I have been very much disturbed by the injection of a "Catholic" issue in the campaign. I fear that in the months to come we will witness an increased level of intensity of this factor as evidenced by the enclosures.

I have also enclosed two recent letters from my wife which have been published during the past two weeks. It is my hope that this particular issue will die down during the coming campaign, but I did want you to have some anticipation of what to expect from the opposition during the next few months.

Cordially and all my best,

GJC:ms
