Mrs. Geraldine Ferraro
312 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mrs. Ferraro,

Because of your outstanding scholarly achievements, and loving relationship with your mother, you have my deepest respect. For this I was inspired to write this poem about you as an individual. My feelings are the most sincerest as I express myself:

There once was a little princess,
Geraldine, to Mom, was the best,
To Dad, his bouncing baby girl,
This babe with crown of thick dark curls.

She weighed in at ten 'n half pounds,
The likes of her not often found.
One might ask, "what tipped the scales so?"
Her brains! far outweighed her torso.

Born to be in the public eye,
She plugged along not knowing why,
Or where it would all end, and then,
Behold, things began to happen

She's in the political game!
With Romanesque thought she explains:
"The good fight, like exquisite wine,
Will prove it's vintage, given time".

And so, dear Demo, I agree,
To this admirable Lady
We ought to open up our hearts,
Stand by her, give her a good start.

Also, I'm adding on a Numerology analysis of your personality. If the newspapers are accurate in their reporting of your birth date--August 26, 1935-- the following are the faculties you were born with:

Outer Expression - Meditative, a thinker. Will speak only when you have something to say (not a conversationalist per se) but what you have to say is to the point.

Inner Expression - The Executive. You have a powerful personality, you are independent, and are well able to compete with men and hold on to your own. I can't picture you as expressing yourself negatively (like being overbearing when dealing with your associates, or being demanding) as you truly like people and are interested in people.

Field of Endeavor - Should be in politics as you were meant for the public life.

Mentality - Always think things over before coming to a decision. any decisions you make without deliberating, you will regret.

As for the future - Life is full of ups and downs, and, currently, you are at the peak of your cycle. It's a good time for this opportunity to come your way. Wether you win or lose it will open doors for you as you are not meant to fade away from the political scene.

Ages forty-four to fifty-six is a learning period for you. Your most important political contribution will begin in 1992 and continue on to the year 2001.

This year is a very confusing year for you. Nevertheless, the aftermath of this venture will leave you in an inspirational frame of mind. In retrospect, you will be able to analyze well, get new ideas, make new plans and be prepared to carry on.

Into each life some rain must fall--you will have three years of not very meaningful activity (slump years) which will be in 1986, 1987 and 1988. There will not be much confusion in the first two years of your slump (1986 and 1987) but 1988 will bring on a confusing year, but you'll have 1989 to look forward to as a turning point in your life. Little by little you will see a definite pattern that will launch you again in the public eye and by 1992 to the year 2001 you will have the most productive and most rewarding time of your career.

May Providence smile on you, be sure that it is not my intent to offend, and I extend you my best wishes.

Most sincerely,
