Dear Representative Ferraro,

Please accept my belated but no less sincere congratulations on the nomination of Vice President of the United States.

Last Saturday (8/11) on the CNN "Election Watch" program your candidacy and campaign was discussed by Cokie Roberts of PBS and Martin Schram of the Washington Post. The view expressed was that as a "city" politician Geraldine Ferraro may find it difficult to campaign throughout the country without stumbling. On other network programs similar negative views have been expressed.

As an Italian American and registered Democrat I want to tell you that I have every confidence you will prove these negative views wrong, wrong, wrong!

My best wishes and blessings to you in your campaign.

Very truly yours,
