Dear Gerry: WASHINGTON OFFICE

Just a note to tell you I'm all for you.

I was delighted when you were chosen.

Stick in there, as soon as they heard you were picked. They were ready to attack you.

There are a lot of women out there in your corner. I am so angry at the Republicans & the press.

I took a smiling picture of you, out of the newspaper and I have it on the rear window of my car.

I wish I had a large one of you & Fritz Mondale so I could put it there

Perhaps your secretary would send me one.

I think it would be great if all women,
could show their support and pat them
on their cars.

I'm from Connecticut
like your pal Barbara Kennally, by the way
her speech at the convention was great.
I like her too. You both have spunk, stick in there. You speak
for a lot of women.

I'm a housewife, ~~and~~ and
I'm all for career women.
I never had that chance.
I think your husband is right. It's none of any ones business.

you have a lovely family, and they have all my sympathy.

Stick together, I'm praying hard for all of you.

P.S. I loved it when you started dancing, with all that jazzy music at the convention.

you're my kind of lady
Best of Luck to you & Fritz.
Been a Democrat since I was 7 yrs old. Came to Ellis Island
when an infant from England. Loved all your speeches.

Take care, I'll be rooting for you
Love
