Dear Geraldine:

It is with great pleasure and satisfaction that I learned about your nomination for the Vice Presidency of the United States.

I want to wholeheartedly congratulate you on your nomination and wish you every success.

The only thing I really regret is that membership in Nato still does not entail the right for a German citizen to vote in the Presidential election. Otherwise, you surely had mine.

Looking forward to seeing Vice President Geraldine A. Ferraro in Washington D.C. in January 1985 I remain

Cordially,
