Dear Congresswoman Ferraro,

I have not been as enthusiastic about politics since Adlai Stevenson was nominated. I was rooting for you and I was delighted, to put it mildly, when I heard the news. Mr. Mondale is to be congratulated for having selected you and I pray that you both will win in a landslide victory.

I am happy for your and mother. I know what it means to work and care for children when you are widowed.
As you no doubt will realize as you read, I am not young — no indeed. I am 83 years of age, but if I can in any way help to ensure your winning in November, I should be very gratified to contribute to your success.

With the best of good wishes,

Sincerely
