HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20515

GERALDINE A FERRARO
9TH DISTRICT NEW YORK

January 20, 1983

Dear Walther:

I wanted to tell you just how much I enjoyed the opportunity to meet you at the conference at Hilton Head.

The Conference provided a valuable forum for an exchange of ideas on the many complex problems which face our countries in the coming years. The next twenty years will see major new developments in international politics and economics. Meetings and discussions like those we held at Hilton Head could help substantially in making the necessary adjustments in the rest of this century.

I particularly want to congratulate you for your participation in the first panel. I thought your presentation was excellent and if you are able to do so, I would appreciate having a copy of the prepared text of your remarks.

I hope we will have the chance to work together in the future to forge solutions that will make the world a more prosperous and safe place to live.

If you are ever in Washington, please stop by to say hello.

Cordially,

Geraldine A. Ferraro, M.C.
