WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Congresswoman Ferraro:

My letter to you is two-fold in its nature: - firstly, I've admired your sincere and honest endeavors in handling the delicate and pervasive problems that confront you. Secondly - I admire, and say this with great pride, your challenging spirit that makes you stand tall before the ever-present seekers that try to rent your mind and soul to fit their selfish and insinuating enquiries.

May God continue to grant you peace of mind, Good Health - and guide you - as always on your record - in your totally unselfish services to our Great Nation - warmest wishes -
