Dear Gerry & John:

Congratulations and all of our best wishes, for the campaign, the election and the next term. It is quite exciting for your friends to realize that next year, if I call the White House, the Veep will know me by name.

The least support you can count on from our family is two votes, plus [REDACTED] if you go for a second term, plus my mother, who illustrates first-hand the value of your selection. My mother, who relates to Reagan as I do to Point of Woods, had reluctantly decided this past month that she simply cannot support a Democratic Party which can, and does, embrace Jesse Jackson and his deplorable views, pronouncements and associates. She read the Commentary article on him, figured that all politicians know what she knows, and she heard no one but Mayor Koch speak out.

However, your entry suddenly galvanized my mother into enthusiasm for the ticket, and she now remembers that she always liked Mondale when he was the Veep.

We are very happy for you and excited by the prospect of your campaign and, while we are not fat cats, we intend to do our bit to get you a good job next year.

Love to all from us all.

Sincerely,

RP/mt
