Honorable Geraldine Ferraro
Candidate for Vice President of the United States
2201 Wisconsin Avenue
Washington, D. C. 20007

Dear Geraldine Ferraro,

Just in case you may come to value and want to use one of these suggestions and ideas in your tough uphill election battle, I respectfully submit: never never or hardly ever mention the proper name of anyone of your competitors, use only synonymical names, whereas, in reference to an ally or friend or supporter, give the full name, prefer citing the group instead of an individual opponent, have only one objective: sell Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro to the most difficult - the competition itself and all other Republican voters. In order to keep selling points for Democratic votes active and fresh in the minds of the voters at that crucial moment in the booths, give only one or few vital reasons repeatedly.

This is what I would tell the people: In the face of the continuous escalating communist threat, our honorable leaders have had the good sense to keep the peace and make a good attempt at disarmament by enormous buildup of our defensive position. This massive spending has naturally (as it has in the past) created jobs and the so called recovery.

But on the other side of this issue one can see that our honorable but insensitive unknowing leaders must bear the blame for their pitiful devastating voodoo economic policies. On the other side of this issue our unknowing leaders don't know what they're doing because they've committed the worse sins on earth by their voodoo economic policies favoring the rich while tightening the ring around the necks of the poor. They claim these voodoo policies care for the "truly needy." The truth is that that care is "crumbs from the feast."

Of the last four years, who can say how much more worry and misery, how much more tears and torment were brought on by these voodoo policies to innocent timid mothers and other people situated on the lower end of the economic ladder. Of the last four years, who can say how many more innocent children suffered serious harm through the plight of their mothers and "crumbs from the feast."

The biggest problem in this country is getting the right people to serve in the White House. Excluding that, one of the biggest problems, if not the biggest is mental illness mainly caused or worsened by voodoo economic policies. Most of our unfortunate people on the lower end of the economic ladder don't have the talent or resourcefulness or mental health to cope with our jungle economic system where lions and tigers, baboons and skunks thrive.

This administration's voodoo economic policies are the worse sins on earth because they're carbon copies of the basics that in the past gave birth to communism and cultivated and nurtured it to its present monstrous size whereby we have created our own Damocles.

One can see that our unknowing leaders serve neither the rich nor the poor nor anyone because the fundamental most important thing of all in this country is survival. The first duty of government is survival and the first rule of survival in government is care of its weakest people first.

Of the last four years, despite the drop in the inflation rate, thirty or forty million people in this country live lives "a little better than slaves." while the rest of the population, it seems, never had a more abundant flow of luxuries and money. And yet, reportedly, most of our people are having trouble sleeping at night. None of our good people can rest easy until all of the people rest easy. Not until then can we really say this is a country with liberty and justice for all, and not until then will communism as we know it today die a natural death.

That's why we need a change in the White House. That's why we need the greatest power in existence which is surely something - something that in a way you can see and hear and touch and feel, and you're positive it's there; we only need common sense in decisive places which leads us to balanced love and truth and compassion and justice and work and sacrifice and charity. That's why we need new leaders who listen and hear us. That's why we need new leaders to send an everlasting shaft of light across this land so that all of our good people can rest easy.

That's why we need for vice president of the United States that much more sensitive sensible compassionate and able good woman - Geraldine Ferraro.

That's why we need for president of the United States that much more sensitive sensible compassionate and able good man - Walter Mondale.

Respectfully
