Representative Geraldine Ferraro
House Of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Representative Ferraro,

I am the Mondale-Ferraro Campaign Manager of the town of Weston, CT. (Population 9000, mostly affluent, intelligent, decision-makers and influencers.)

The League of Women Voters here sponsors a Voter's Night, and I have the task of presenting and defending (against strong Republican loyalists) the Mondale-Ferraro platform.

I need help.
I especially need material that will answer the statement:
"Reagan's good for business."

Weston is one of the richest towns in the richest state in the country (I believe this is true according to recent statistics.)

People here work for IBM, Xerox, Mobil, etc.

They don't necessarily like Ronald Reagan. But they're brainwashed.

We have about 1200 Independents who can go either way.

If the Democrats all voted, and the Independents voted Democratic, we'd overcome the Republicans easily.

But, though I am reading every bit of campaign material I can find, the issue re: BUSINESS is a tough one.

I have to prove, or at least, demonstrate, that the so-called Recovery is short-lived.
That Reagan is not good for the healthy, long-range economic picture.
Can you please send me whatever material is available on this subject.
When Gary Hart was trying to be the nominee, I was the head of the Westonites For Hart. And we managed to increase Democratic registration by a fat percentage, and we managed to get more votes for Hart than any other town in Fairfield County.

I feel 100% more strongly for Geraldine Ferraro.

I would also like to tell you that Geraldine Ferraro is the first political candidate that has my 83-year old mother's vote since Adlai Stevenson!

Therefore, I hope that this letter reaches you and that you hear my message.

People have to be convinced that Mondale is strong enough to be President.

But they also have to feel that Mondale/Ferraro won't bring a "welfare state" and deprive all the big executives of their profits.

I know there are answers to all these questions because I read between the lines and see reagan's policy causing economic disaster.

but it's not an easy feeling to substantiate and I need more than intuition.

Many thanks for giving this your serious attention.

Sincerely,

(home address: Weston, CT.)
