Washington D.C.

Dear Mrs. Ferraro:

The Filipino Ladies Association of Guam (FLAG) is a non-profit, civic organization that is considered the biggest and most influential women's group on Guam. Many historical landmarks have risen on Guam with the substantial support of this organization. Also, we are actively involved in various beautification projects, in providing needed medical equipment for the Guam Memorial Hospital, in countless scholarship programs, and other such noteworthy undertakings. Our contributions are both beneficial and highly visible to our communities.

We support the move for equal opportunity for women. Thus, we consider your nomination to the Vice-presidential seat as a big leap towards women's recognition through good leadership.

As a tangible expression of our pride and support, we are hereby enclosing our donation of one hundred US dollars ($100.00). We hope that it may help defray some of your campaign costs.

Although the people of Guam may not exercise their voting power in that upcoming election, we will do our best to assist you through personal campaigns to our myriad relatives and friends on the mainland.

Our prayers and continuing support for your success.

Very truly yours,

Zeny Custodio
President, FLAG
