Dear Jerry,

RECEIVED

SEP 7 1984

I believe in you. I have never written a fan letter before but I want you to know I'm in your corner. I hope this letter of support will offset at least one uncalled for Republican criticism.

I, too, am Italian American and am extremely proud of my ancestry and of all the Italian-Americans who have made their mark in American history. And oh so proud that the first woman on a presidential ticket is Italian.

But that's not the main reason
I'm in your corner. I saw you being interviewed on P.V. before you were picked by Walter Mondale, when you were only a possibility. After listening to you speak and answer questions, I knew you were one smart lady, and Mondale was wise
to choose you as his running mate.

I feel the same as you about abortion and other values. And I like the way you answer your critics. Keep up the good work!

I am seriously thinking of joining the local Democratic party so I can do my thing for the Mondale-Farrar ticket.

Hang in there. We'll beat them.

Sincerely,

Hallside, N.J. 07205

PS. I remember reading in a news paper, quite a few years ago, that Ronald Reagan didn't pay any taxes one year while he was Governor because of loopholes. And it was all legal! Imagine! That alone should stop anyone who works for a living from voting for him.
