Hon. Geraldine Ferraro
Washington, DC

Dear Congresswoman Ferraro:

A mere five minutes after your designation was announced by Walter Mondale, I saw friends of yours from the Virgin Islands, Yvette Lichtenstein and Nat Kalikow sporting the largest "FERRARO FOR VICE-PRESIDENT" buttons this side of San Francisco.

I spoke with Yvette at length (we share the same hair stylist), and I told her how thrilled I was to hear of your selection as Mr. Mondale's running mate.

As a resident of the Borough of Queens, as a working woman and mother, a feminist and life-long (37 years) Democrat, I congratulate you and wish you the very best of luck in the coming campaign.

I would love to be in touch with your New York staff so that I may lend my energies to getting you and Mr. Mondale elected.

Enclosed is a souvenir from a recent run in New York City... the message says it all, doesn't it?

All the best

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

I just wanted to drop you a note and thank you for your support and congratulations. Also, thank you for the "Who says Women can't run the World" tee shirt.

I appreciate your taking the time to send it to me. And I appreciate your offer of support for the campaign. Someone from my New York staff will be in touch with you soon.

Best regards,

Cordially,

Geraldine A. Ferraro
Member of Congress
