CONGRATS!

July 12, 1984

Dear Congressman Ferraro,

Congratulations on being chosen as Mr. Mondale's running mate!
We women can all be proud of you.

I'd like to make a suggestion.

* On T-V, I heard you say "I do not feel badly." The word should be bad.

Feelings take the adjective, bad. The adverb, badly, is used thusly - "he did his work badly". It is important that language be used properly.

* Also, for us senior citizens, will you please speech more slowly? Those with impaired hearing cannot grasp what is being said, if words are spoken too rapidly.

Again, let me wish you much luck. You have my vote.

Sincerely,

RECEIVED
