Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro
House of Representatives
The Capitol
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congresswoman Ferraro:

I am a retired American living in Madrid who feels that it is of basic importance for the U.S. and for the good of all of us who inhabit this planet earth for you and Mr. Mondale to defeat the Reagan-Bush team for the presidency. Enclosed is a check for $10.00 as my modest contribution to your campaign with all my best wishes for a Democratic Party victory on the forthcoming presidential election in November. I think that the press has treated you in a shameful way and as a former newspaperman I apologise to you. I spent a great part of my life before being retired, first as a public information officer of the U.N. and the WHO. and later as Director of Public Relations of the American Museum of Natural History. I have always been "an idea man" and I now have an idea of how you and Mr. Mondale can come out victorious on November 6. Like all good ideas, it is very simple. And it is as American as "apple pie." And it is this:

Remember Paul Revere and his famous "midnight ride?" Organize in as many states as possible "The Paul Revere Women Riders" who will get the men and women out to vote for the Democratic Party presidential ticket. If you can do that, I predict you can and will defeat Reagan and Bush.

Good luck, Ms. Ferraro, with all my best wishes.
