Congrats.

Dear Gerry Congratulations.

We hope to rid our nation of rich Reaganites
Or we would have to make $100,000 per. to live to-day!

You can pass the information on to Mr. Mondale.

Food prices are monstrous! What in hell can you get 3'00 for 1 lb. of red peppers. Why 1 pepper would weigh 1/4 to 1/2 lb. Mayo is $2 per qt. Coffee $2.59
These are just a couple of items, need I go on?!
Naturally, I don't buy them - I forget them.

Our daughter's cesarean section is costing her $1600.00. Can you imagine!

Oh yes, let us not forget - the plunkers even cut over the cost of living raises on Social Security!!

Never mind sending our taxpayers money to El Salvador, Nicaragua etc. They put themselves in their situations, not us! Those bastards in Nicaragua murdered one of our boys from Bogota, N.J. who was on an assignment there. The story & his sister was on T.V.

Now nutty Reagan is sticking his nose out to destroy the Post Office! Their paying for medicine, for what & whom?! They're got their own insurance they pay into. Who the hell's idea is this to eliminate the first 8 hrs. paid sick leave!? don't afraid this time the Post Office employees will walk out on strike! I hope not.

If Reagan thinks the P.O. gets such a great salary he's very much mistaken! One can't afford the expenses Reagan, Nancy, the Doles - 2 salaries here, Nancy Howard Baker & the like! Oh yes - Maureen Reagan and that "gorch" dame. Who the hell needed her back again?!

Mrs. Ferraro, I can go on & on & on, but I don't have the time.

We listened to Gov. Cuomo's speech & it was the best speech any politician ever made! He kept us interested. We didn't know how great a speaker he is. We could've listened for more. I also wrote to him & told him he was great.

Mrs. & Miss
