Dear Congresswoman Ferraro,

Congratulations!!! I can't tell you how happy and excited I am that you are Mondale's running mate. It's great, not only that Mondale picked a woman, but that he picked you. It's wonderful for women everywhere, and especially for women in your district! I feel so proud that you were the first woman chosen for the Vice Presidential spot - and you earned it!

I intended to support Mondale anyway, but with you on the ticket, it will give me much more incentive to work for the election. And I think you are such a great asset to the party - if people from Astoria voted for you, people everywhere will vote for you! I've always admired the way you stick fast to your positions on controversial issues, like abortion, and could present it in such a way that even a conservative audience finds acceptable.

We'll certainly miss you in New York, but wish you the very best luck in your new position. I know this sounds like a gushy fan letter, but when I heard the good news, I literally danced for joy with the other women I work with.

This is a great day for women and men everywhere - next time, the Presidency!

Best wishes.
