Dear Geraldine Ferraro,

SEP 11 1984

I admire your courage and your principles and your firm perseverance.

Although I realize your time is at a premium now and until November 6th I would ask, no beg, you and Mr. Fruz Mondale to read two books with notepaper and pencil in hand.

They are Plain Speaking an oral biography of Harry S. Truman by Merle Miller, Berkley Medallion Books Library of Congress card # 73-87198 and The Federalist Papers, selected and Edited by Roy P. Fairfield, Anchor Books edition, Library of Congress card # 61-6960.

If each of you comprehends the facts and impact behind each of these accounts

You cannot lose on November 6th. And our U.S.A. needs both of you if you can imbibe and then spread in simple language to our fellow Americans the material, the ideas and the approaches to potential issues facing us now in 1984 that are contained in these books.

Sincerely
a fellow American living in Spain.
