Re: 1984 Presidential Election

Dear Mrs. Ferraro:

Let me congratulate you most warmly on your nomination as Vice-Presidential candidate for the Democratic Party.

I have enclosed an interesting and important article on the U.S. election which was published yesterday in a major Zimbabwe newspaper. I feel that this article is most persuasive and contains some very astute insights on the interests of African people in the 1984 U.S. election.

I would be more than pleased to offer my personal support and advice to your efforts and would be pleased to discuss this further with your aids.

I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,
