The Franciscan Order for over seven hundred years has brought the teachings of Christ to every land. Today the Franciscan Missionary Union continues to make this wonderful work possible by the alms of those who enroll themselves, their relatives, their friends or deceased loved ones in the Union. In turn, the Missionary Union pledges each member a share in the Masses, prayers and good works, not only of its missionaries, but of the whole Order as well.

The Franciscan Missionary Union was approved by Pope Pius X, May 31, 1907 and again by Pope Pius XI, April 25, 1922.
