Dear Gerry, July 20, 1984

Congratulations! My family and I are so thrilled for you!

I thought you might enjoy reading this article that appeared in our county (Republican) paper. I have no idea how the reporter knew we were classmates.

The children are so happy that they met you when we visited your office in Washington.

I told them that the next time
we visit will be in the White House.

Best of luck to you.

Love,

Dear [REDACTED]

I was delighted to receive your kind congratulations upon my nomination. I appreciate your warm words of support.

I look forward to working with you in the coming months as Americans across the nation unite to defeat Ronald Reagan in November. With your help, November 6, 1984, will be an affirmation of the America that we Democrats believe in and the guarantee of an America with a bright and shining future for all of us.

Again, my thanks for your support.

With best wishes,

Cordially,

Geraldine A. Ferraro
