WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Congresswoman:

First of all, congratulations! Every normal woman in America (this precludes Phyllis Shoo-fly) looks to you as a perfect role model.

I give you A+ for your hairdo, your taste in clothing and personality (both my sister and my husband were public school teachers.)

I pray that the Republicans will not in any way try to inflict hurt in any way to you, your very nice husband and lovely kids. It takes enormous courage to stick your head up above the crowd when there are others waiting to take pot shots at you.

Before the last election I heard many people in this area complain bitterly about the people who, refusing to work, lived greedily off the public funds. I am still hearing such complaints against the free-loaders.

As American Jews, we were especially pleased and proud that a rabbi was chosen to give such a beautiful benediction at the close of the convention. Thank you.

We wish you all success and happiness.

Cordially,
