Representative Geraldine Ferraro
United States House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Representative Ferraro,

First of all, my congratulations to you upon your selection to the candidacy of Vice President of the United States. I was happy to see that members of my gender have finally come to realize we do not hold a monopoly on ability regarding governmental affairs.

While I am not a registered Democrat, I have decided to follow your advice regarding at least one point, that is the separation of the "salesman from the product" in issues of the Presidency. To this end, I am requesting from you information concerning your own Congressional activities and voting record covering the past six years.

I am certain you will understand that your advice in order to be fair must be applied to all candidates seeking public office, particularly the ones which you and Mr. Mondale now seek. I would appreciate if you could make this information as complete as possible.

I look forward to hearing from you.

My best wishes to you in your campaign, and all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

District, New Jersey)
