Dear Congressman Ferraro

Added to my own joy in your nomination is that of everyone to whom I've spoken since it became known. Having had the pleasure, twice, of introducing you at Capital Hill luncheons for the Women's Division of the Council of Jewish Federations, I feel added reinforcement to my confidence in you. I am enclosing a check as a personal testimonial.

Because of my work on the national scene I can identify women in communities throughout the nation who would, also, be eager to be helpful in your campaign. I'd be happy to meet a member of your staff to discuss how we can best implement your plans.

(Long arm of coincidence: Maxine is the daughter of my lifelong friend and colleague room-mate.)

I want to help any way I can to achieve victory for the Mondale/Ferraro ticket.

Most cordially,
