Dear Gerry:

I left a message for ██████ ████ early this week, wanting to wish you both good luck in San Francisco, and wanting to let you know that I'd be happy to help out in preparing for the '86 Senate race whenever you were ready to start.

Boy, did I make a mistake and I can't tell you how glad I am that I was wrong!

Congratulations, and lots and lots of luck. I'm thrilled for you-for women- for N.Y.- and for the country.

Following a meeting with ██████████, it has been decided that I'll be handling the Jewish vote in N.Y. State and the surrounding area.
Thus, I look forward to seeing you when you're in the area.

In the meantime, if there's anything I can do to be helpful, just give me a call.

All the best. I'm really glad it's you.
